Submitted comment by Nikki Adams read by President Odunze- "Hello Kelechi, This is a public comment for the appointment of Abigail Negrete and Leslie Paredes for Associate Justice.

Over the past year, I have seen both Abby and Leslie grow in remarkable ways. Both of them have relentlessly pursued greatness in every task assigned to them. They adapt and learn at a speed I could only hope to achieve.

Abby has been incredibly involved on campus with Model UN and Mock Trial. Her background in economics will be an incredibly valuable asset in any work she does with the JC. She is very detail-oriented, and her happiness is like a ray of sunshine. She will not only inspire future JC members and interns, but also spread joy at any event she attends.

Leslie, no matter how busy she is, has always made time for her assigned roles. She is not only gifted, but also inspiring in the areas of time management, motivation, and ambition. Leslie will be a valuable asset for anyone seeking guidance, whether through questions, networking, or real-life applications of the law. I am so excited to see where she will go and all the things she will achieve.

Both of these candidates have my highest recommendation for the role of Associate Justice. They are helping pave the future of the branch and the legal profession. I am more than happy and *proud to work with them in the future.
