Submitted Public Comment by Nikki Adams, read by President Odunze- "Public Comment for 5/18

Hello,

As the Chief Justice I have had the pleasure of knowing many talented individuals. In all of the 3 years I've been apart of CSUN, I've had the privilege of working with many talented Judicial Council members, and in all of my time I have never seen anyone, be it an intern, or a Judicial Council member, or a Chief Justice that was as dedicated to the JC as Ria and Isabella. Over the past semester we, the JC, were the most frontward facing we have ever been in the history of CSUN. We conducted the Newsletter, the JC Pre-Law Banquet, weekly meetings, and 2 interpretations, for every single thing I just listed out Ria and Isabella were as involved as interns could be (besides the interpretations which they could not be a part of).

I was very clear to all of the JC members, that we needed to be a team in planning the Pre-Law banquet, but what I didn't expect was to have two interns who not only wanted to plan it, they wanted to market it, they wanted to email students, panelists, tell their friends, plan the music, the slideshows, the agenda, they wanted to create the event. Isabella and Ria were these two interns. Isabella planned out every single email to panelists, clubs, any follow-ups, and she came 5 hours early to the event to help me plan. Ria also came 5 hours early, she didn't only make every single slideshow you saw, she made the very adorable reel that promoted our event. These two are remarkable, these two have made me a better Chief Justice. I have seen how motivated they are and it made me realize I could not disappoint them. I wanted to make the JC something they would be proud of and I did that because these two didn't stop at their written responsibilities as an intern. They pushed further; constantly, continuously, relentlessly, they asked me "is there anything else I can do?" and when I said "Yes, can you do X, Y, Z," their answers were always "when do you need this done by." These two are not just hard working, talented, smart, motivated, they are our future. They are so bright. Isabella and Ria have my greatest recommendation as Chief Justice. Thank you Isabella and Ria for giving me hope for the future of the branch and UNLV's student government.

Nikki Adams."
