Opened: 5:11 pm

Closed: 5:11 pm

- 2. PUBLIC COMMENT INFORMATION ONLY

(See foregoing notation regarding public comment)

Opened: 5:11 pm

Makayla Garder- Endorses Sophia Winetz and talks about outreach after the previous Internal Affairs meeting.

Diego Benitez- Talks about the experience in the Judicial Council and shows continued interest.

Senator King is present at 5:14 pm. 13 Senators are present.

Public comment by Beth Gersten read by Senate President Flores- "I am proud to endorse Aliza Mendez-loya for Student Government Senator. As her BUS 103 professor this past spring, I saw firsthand her incredible reliability and commitment-she maintained near-perfect attendance, was always on time, and earned a well-deserved 'A' through high-quality work.

What sets Aliza apart as a leader is her resourcefulness and strong networking skills. She actively demonstrated this by seeking me out to brainstorm tangible ways she can serve the student body, and by proactively building connections across campus. She brings sharp critical thinking, innovative ideas, and a collaborative spirit to the table. She will be a dedicated, thoughtful, and highly effective voice for her fellow students.

Good luck! UNLV Beth Gersten, Ph.D."

Public comment by Juan Charry Zapata read by Senate President Flores- "To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to express my strong support for Aliza Mendez-Loya for the open seat representing the Lee Business School in CSUN at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

I had the pleasure of working with Aliza during one semester while I served as the Associate Director of Election Events for CSUN. During that time, she helped with the executive elections and consistently showed that she is dependable, hardworking, and committed to serving others.

Aliza was someone I could count on. She showed up early to help with setup, stayed for long periods of time when needed, and brought a positive attitude throughout the work. She also did a great job encouraging students to participate in the election process and take their responsibility seriously when choosing their student representatives.

What stood out most to me was her willingness to step in and help wherever needed. When problems came up, Aliza took initiative and handled situations with maturity and professionalism. She was always respectful, easy to work with, and clearly motivated by a genuine desire to support students and contribute in a meaningful way.

In addition to what I observed directly, her resume reflects strong academic performance and campus involvement, including her studies in Business Administration at UNLV, a 3.75 GPA, scholarship recognition, and CSUN-related service. Those experiences align with the leadership, discipline, and responsibility I saw in her firsthand.

I believe Aliza would serve the students of the Lee Business School well, and I recommend her with confidence for this position. She has the work ethic, character, and commitment to make a positive impact in CSUN.

Sincerely, Juan Charry.”
