

Master's in Management Information Systems

The most abundant job opportunities for an individual with a master's in information systems are in the areas of application developer, IT consultant, and data/analytics. Annual salaries range from $82,857 to $104,076 with Software Developers positions paying the most.

Table: Salary Comparison for IS Career with a Master's Degree

Job Title	Annual Salary
Software Developers	$104,076
Data/Analytics	$98,347
Project Manager	$95,500
Other IT/IS Jobs	$96,656
Information Technology Advisor/Consultant	$94,833
Information Security Analyst	$86,729
Computer Systems Analyst	$82,857

In 2022, the job placement rate is 92% six months after graduating with a Master's in IS.

Table: Job Placement Rate between 2013-2024 for Master's in Information Systems

Year	Job Placement Rate at Graduation	Job Placement Rate 6 Months after Graduation
2024	29%	74%
2022	65%	92%
2019	47%	81%
2017	33%	74%
2015	65%	94%
2013	76%	90%

Salaries for IS graduates are significantly higher than typical business majors. Overall, IS salaries are outpacing business school salaries, and their growth relative to 2019 represents an increasingly competitive market for hiring IS professionals.

Table: Master's Salary Comparison

Master's Degree	Annual Salary
Information System	$96,164
Marketing	$85,919
Accounting	$70,995
Finance	$70,473

For more information about job opportunities in the area of information systems, visit <https://isjobindex.com/>.