FAMILY

Welcome to the Rebel Family!

Whether you are a first-time or experienced college parent or family member, if you live across town, across the country, or around the globe – we're here for you!

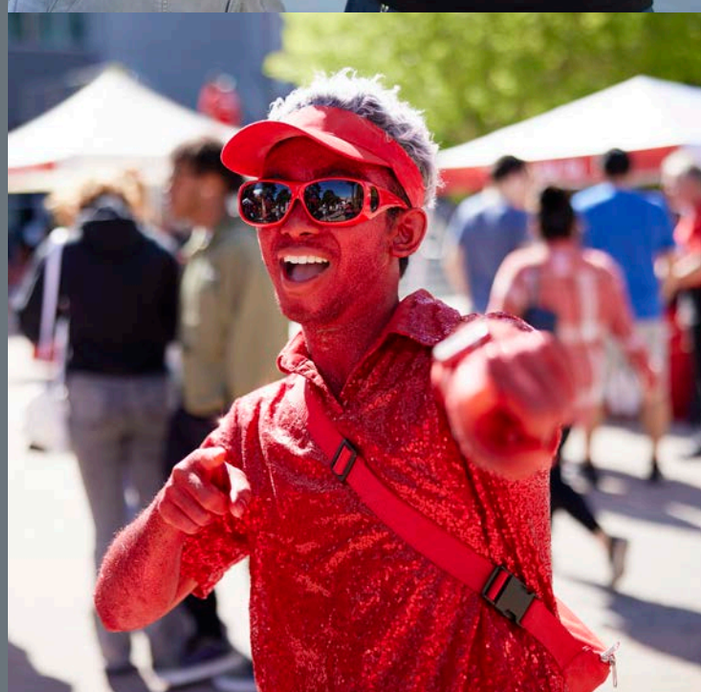

Join the UNLV Family Network, where you'll find resources, guidance, and encouragement for families of UNLV students. You'll be able to connect with other families and the university through events, activities, and volunteer opportunities.

The next few months will be filled with excitement and anxiety. As emerging adults, your students will be learning to navigate campus and take responsibility for their academic careers. They may look to you for advice and support, and you are not alone on this journey! Visit unlv.edu/parents to sign up for our e-newsletter and join the UNLV Family Network Facebook group. Be sure to share your UNLV family photos, too!

We're looking forward to these next few years together on your student's road to graduation!

ACADEMIC ENRICHMENT

Academic Advising

unlv.edu/advising

UNLV has 12 academic advising centers on campus to guide and support students through their academic journey. Advisors offer personalized support to help students meet their degree requirements and achieve their academic goals. Students are encouraged to meet with their advisors before fall and spring registration opens to stay on track each semester.

Student Success

unlv.edu/studentsuccess

Student Success is dedicated to supporting undergraduate students throughout their college experience. They offer a variety of services to help students succeed academically, including tutoring, supplemental instruction, success coaching, peer mentoring, academic advising, and support for student-athletes. They also provide specialized programs, including First-Year Experience, Dual Enrollment, Major Exploration, and Math Bridge programs.

Writing Center

unlv.edu/writing-center

The Writing Center offers students free one-on-one or group consultations working on academic, professional, or personal writing projects at any stage of the writing process – from first ideas to polished drafts. The center offers in-person, virtual, and OWL writing consultations. Additional online resources are also available.

University Libraries

library.unlv.edu

The university libraries are a hub for student discovery, creativity, learning, and scholarship. The primary and largest library at UNLV is Lied Library. As the campus's physical and intellectual center, it boasts over 2,500 study spaces, computer workstations, and group study rooms to support student learning. Students can also access the Makerspace & Multimedia Production Studios, multidisciplinary spaces dedicated to emerging technology where students can experiment and create. Four additional branch libraries provide access to specialized materials and offer research assistance and resources on architecture, medicine, music, and teacher development.

Office of Undergraduate Research

unlv.edu/our

The Office of Undergraduate Research (OUR) seeks to elevate the status of undergraduate research at UNLV. OUR strives to increase direct undergraduate student participation in research and enhance research education and learning experiences. They create rich and diverse research and funding opportunities and engage students with local, regional, national, and global challenges.

PAYING FOR COLLEGE

UNLV Family Guide

unlv.edu/orientation/family

College is an investment in your student's future — both in terms of time and money. We want to ensure that everyone is prepared for the costs associated with attending college. Review the UNLV Family Guide for valuable resources about our student financial support services, financial aid awards, and the action items your student must take to ensure they receive their financial aid. You can find this information in the Paying for College section of the guide.

Financial Aid & Scholarships

unlv.edu/finaid

Financial aid helps students pay for college by assisting with educational costs such as tuition and fees, room and board, and even books and supplies. Types of aid include scholarships, grants, work-study, and loans. Forms related to financial aid can be found at unlv.edu/finaid/forms.

How to Pay Your Tuition & Fees Bill

unlv.edu/cashiering/pay

Notification of tuition and fees will be sent via email to your student's Rebelmail account. They can view their current account balance by logging in to their MyUNLV account at my.unlv.edu.

Students wishing to visit the Cashiering & Student Accounts Office in person should first join the QLess virtual line by texting CASHIERINGQ to 702-710-0905 or visiting unlv.edu/rebelq. Questions can also be submitted online using the Rebel Success Hub at unlv.today/rebel-success.

The Cashiering & Student Accounts Office accepts the following forms of payment:

Credit or Debit Card

- Pay online with a credit or debit card by logging in to their MyUNLV account
- Pay in person with a credit or debit card
- Pay by faxing a completed Credit Card Authorization Form

Cash

Cash payments are not recommended but can be made at the Cashiering & Student Accounts office.

Check, Cashier's Check, or Money Order

Check, Cashier's Check, or Money Order Payments can be made by check, cashier's check, or money order through the Cashiering & Student Accounts office or a drop box located on the first floor of the Student Services Complex, Building A. All forms of payment should be made payable to the Board of Regents and include the NSHE Student ID Number on the front.

Payment Plans

Payment plans become available once your student registers for classes. In MyUNLV, select My Account and Enroll in a Payment Plan. For important tuition payment deadlines, please visit unlv.edu/cashiering/payment-plans.

Rebels CU

banklikearebel.com

Rebels CU is a division of Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union with a branch right on campus in SSC-C. It offers students convenient banking, financial education, and resources to help manage money smartly throughout college and beyond. Become a member and experience what it's like to Bank Like a Rebel. Federally insured by NCUA.

SUPPORT SERVICES

The Intersection

unlv.edu/intersection

Available to all students, The Intersection serves as an academic resource center for students seeking information and assistance on a variety of topics that reflect the challenges they encounter in their academic life. It is a multicultural center that focuses on demystifying the college experience for self-identified first-generation students and students of color.

The Dr. William W. Sullivan Center for Academic Enrichment & Outreach

unlv.edu/caeo

The Center for Academic Enrichment & Outreach offers federally-funded programs that deliver services designed to motivate and support students from diverse backgrounds to pursue a college degree. They provide eligible students with various support services to help them achieve their educational goals, including tutoring, mentoring, academic and career counseling, and undergraduate research. All services are free to qualified students. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis, and space is limited.

Disability Resource Center

unlv.edu/drc

The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is the officially designated office supporting UNLV students with disabilities. Students with disabilities, temporary injuries, or who need academic adjustments due to pregnancy are encouraged to contact the DRC about support, accommodations, and services available at UNLV.

Military & Veteran Services Center

unlv.edu/veterans

The Military & Veteran Services Center (MVSC) has veterans and GI Bill®-experienced staff who understand the many challenges associated with students working toward their degree while serving on active duty and their transition from the military to the civilian world. The MVSC has developed a veteran-friendly campus environment that fosters academic and personal success.

Student Support & Advocacy

unlv.today/student-support-advocacy

Student Support and Advocacy offers access to basic needs and connects students with resources such as SNAP E&T, scholarships, and emergency funds.

Career Services & Workforce Development

unlv.edu/career-services-workforce-dev

Career Services & Workforce Development host on-campus job fairs and provides career and professional development services. These services include career coaching, job and internship search assistance, interview preparation, resume and cover letter assistance, and career planning and exploration. Students and alumni also have access to the online recruiting platform, Handshake, that allows them to apply for jobs and internships.

International Student & Scholar Compliance

unlv.edu/international-student-scholar-compliance

The Office of International Student & Scholar Compliance provides comprehensive immigration support and advising for F-1 and J-1 international students at UNLV. Services include assistance with immigration records and regulations, guidance on visa and travel issues, and support for employment eligibility and U.S. work authorization. Advisors are available to answer questions about full-time enrollment for undergraduate and graduate international students, helping them achieve their educational, professional, and personal goals.

Study Abroad Programs

unlv.edu/studyabroad

Studying abroad offers UNLV students an affordable way to experience the world while pursuing their academic goals. Students can take classes toward their major, learn a new language, or explore volunteer and internship opportunities abroad during a semester, winter break, summer, or even for a full year. In addition to earning credit, students gain a global perspective, build lasting connections, and participate in enriching field trips.

English Language Center

unlv.edu/elc

The English Language Center (ELC) helps multilingual and international students improve their English proficiency and communication skills for academic success and social interaction. The ELC offers specialized programs to build fluency, critical thinking, and writing skills, as well as intensive courses to focus on areas needed for academic and life success. Additionally, all students have access to English Language Peer Tutoring for informal instruction and practice.

CAMPUS TECHNOLOGY, SHIPPING & PRINTING

Information Technology

it.unlv.edu

Discover both on-campus and remote learning technologies, including WebCampus, WiFi, computer labs and RebelApps remote software, printing, and more. Account and technology help is available by phone, email, chat, and on campus at the IT Help Desk in the Student Union and CHB-B. For hours and information, visit it.unlv.edu/help.

Print at UNLV

it.unlv.edu/computer-labs/about/printing-scanning

UNLV offers fee-per-page printing at various locations across campus. Students log in to RebelPrint using their ACE account to print in campus computer labs.

Rebel Copy & Send

unlv.edu/print

Located in the Student Union, Rebel Copy & Send gives students access to various printing and shipping services.

Student Union Information Desk

unlv.edu/studentunion

Students can take care of more than their technology, printing, and shipping needs in the Student Union. They can also pick up free Scantrons and blue books for tests and exams at the Information Desk on the first floor.

STUDENT INVOLVEMENT

Clubs & Organizations

involvementcenter.unlv.edu

Getting involved is the best way for students to make the most out of their college experience. UNLV has more than 450 student clubs and organizations that encompass a variety of interests, activities, and beliefs.

Student Government

unlv.edu/csun

Consolidated Students of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (CSUN) is the undergraduate student government at UNLV. CSUN represents the voice of students and strives to create a thriving campus community to enhance each student's college experience. CSUN offers free legal advice to undergraduate students, provides funding for student organizations, supplies free scantrons and exam books at the Student Union info desk, and offers thousands of dollars in scholarships each year.

Fraternity & Sorority Life

unlv.edu/sia/fraternity-sorority

Greek life is an excellent way for students to get involved in the community and on campus. Our fraternity and sorority members come from every background and are united in shared values in academics, community service, leadership, campus involvement, and career development. There are four governing councils on campus: Interfraternity Council, Panhellenic Council, Multicultural Greek Council, and National Pan-Hellenic Council.

Rebel Events Board

unlv.edu/sia/campus-programs

The Rebel Events Board (REB) coordinates programs that create an exciting student-life experience. Some events include Premier UNLV, Homecoming, Open Mic Nights, and Rebels After Dark.

Service Learning & Leadership

unlv.edu/sll

Service Learning & Leadership offers local and national leadership development and service opportunities to support students in developing the skills needed to make meaningful change in their community.

Student Connection & Engagement

unlv.edu/sce

Student Connection & Engagement (SCE) works to educate and affirm our diverse student population through advocacy, training, and programming. SCE advises two student organizations: Students Organizing Diversity Activities and Students Engaging and Empowering through Dialogue. These organizations plan and facilitate programs around various diversity and social justice topics.

Athletics

unlvrebels.com

DINING & LIVING ON CAMPUS

Meal Plans

unlv.campusdish.com

Delicious, well-balanced, and nutritious meals are available at convenient locations throughout campus. All students living on campus are required to select one of the campus meal plans. Students who commute to campus may also opt to purchase a meal plan.

Meal plans are offered on a semester basis and include meals at the Dining Commons and Dining Dollars that can be used at more than 15 dining locations on campus. On-campus plans are purchased when students register for housing. Students living off campus can also purchase meal plans at any time online or at the RebelCard Services Office in the Student Union.

Students can add Dining Dollars to their RebelCard at any time. For every $100 purchase, they'll receive an additional $10! Students can purchase Dining Dollars online or at the RebelCard Services office in the Student Union.

Dining Options

Dining Commons

The Hazel M. Wilson Dining Commons is open seven days a week and is an all-you-care-to-eat dining location. You won't want to eat anywhere else with eight different stations, including international cuisine, vegan and vegetarian options, made-to-order pasta, a made-to-order grill, and a salad bar! The Dining Commons also houses a P.O.D. Market convenience store for picking up a quick snack or drink.

- Panera Bread: Sidewalk Cafe near the Thomas Beam Engineering Complex

Residence Hall Living

unlv.edu/housing

National studies have shown that college students who live on campus earn better grades, make more friends, adjust to college sooner, and are more likely to graduate on time. Living independently in a supportive environment can help improve student success.

First-Year Housing Requirement

unlv.edu/housing/first-year-students/requirements

First-year students graduating from a high school outside of Las Vegas, Henderson, North Las Vegas, Boulder City, or Pahrump, and are taking six or more credits are required to live on campus in a UNLV housing facility during their first year.

Upperclassmen Apartment Living

liveudistrict.com

Apartment living facilities tailored for upperclassmen are available in the U-District. This new student community offers a variety of floor plans with pricing to fit any budget within two communities: The Legacy and The Degree.

CAMPUS RECREATION & WELLNESS

Student Recreation & Wellness Center

unlv.edu/srwc

The Student Recreation & Wellness Center (SRWC) is home to both Campus Recreational Services and the Student Health Center. Students registered for four or more credits are eligible to use the services offered at the SRWC. Students registered for less than four credits may purchase a membership for $25 per month.

Campus Recreational Services

unlv.edu/campusrec

Campus Recreational Services offers activity space for students to exercise, dance, swim, or just relax. Students can also participate in various recreational sports. These include intramural sports such as basketball, outdoor soccer, flag football, and volleyball and club sports such as bowling, esports, ice hockey, and wrestling. Additionally, the SRWC houses the Bike Shop, which provides repair services, workshops, and mountain bike rentals.

Outdoor Adventures

unlv.edu/campusrec/outdoor-adventures

Outdoor Adventures offers single and multi-day trips, including camping, nature yoga, rock climbing, and paddling. Students can choose to go on their own adventure, and can even borrow high-quality outdoor gear from the rental center.

UNLV Wellness Zone

unlv.edu/studentwellness/wellnesszone

The UNLV Wellness Zone is an integrated wellness resource that offers targeted wellness programming and assessments, certified peer education training, personal training, and free wellness supplies and resources. A professional wellness educator is available to answer health and wellness-related questions, and there's a relaxation room where students can de-stress using the free automated massage chairs. The Wellness Zone also provides a variety of inclusive safer-sex supplies, health education workshops and presentations, menstrual products, and other essentials at no cost to students.

Student Health Center

unlv.edu/studentwellness/health-center

The Student Health Center is a nationally accredited health center that provides comprehensive, essential medical and mental health services on an outpatient basis. There is no office visit charge, and same-day appointments are usually available. Appointments can be made by calling 702-895-3370. Services available include:

- Treatment of various illnesses and injuries

For a complete list of services offered, please visit unlv.edu/studentwellness/health-center and click on the Services Offered box.

Please call 702-895-3370 for more information or if you have any questions.

Note: All medical records are confidential. Information will not be released to anyone without the student's written consent except as required by law or in a life-threatening emergency. Students under the age of 18, by Nevada State Law, are minors and must have signed and notarized parental consent and release to obtain medical care. This must be on file at the Student Health Center before care is given, except in the case of an emergency. These forms are available upon request.

The Care Center

unlv.edu/carecenter

The Care Center offers confidential support services to members of our UNLV community who may have experienced sexual violence, relationship violence, family violence, and stalking. Students can receive individual support to assist them in working through feelings, identifying needs, and making decisions. The Care Center also provides a campus crisis hotline, the Care Line, at 702-895-0602.

UNLV Support Team

unlv.edu/campuslife/supportteam

Students will occasionally experience challenges in their personal lives. All members of the UNLV community play an important role in helping students who are experiencing distress. The UNLV Support Team manages a referral system to share information about students' well-being and connect them with university resources. The Support Team Referral Form is available on our website.

Counseling & Psychological Services

unlv.edu/caps

Pursuing a university education can be exciting, challenging, and sometimes highly stressful. Social and personal concerns can interfere with students' academic work and emotional well-being. Student Counseling & Psychological Services (CAPS) is committed to helping students benefit fully from their college experience at UNLV. CAPS is accredited by the International Accreditation of Counseling Services (IACS) and offers in-person and telehealth services. Our psychologists, counselors, behavioral health provider, and psychiatrist specialize in dealing with the problems commonly experienced by college students of all ages and backgrounds. We collaborate with students to increase self-understanding and develop the skills necessary to overcome personal concerns.

Confidential services offered to assist students in managing the adjustment demands and personal challenges of college include:

- Single sessions and brief consultations
- Individual, group, and couples counseling
- Crisis assessment and intervention
- Psychological assessment and testing
- Drug and alcohol use assessment and treatment
- Eating disorder assessment and treatment
- Medication evaluation and management
- Referrals to community health care providers when necessary

All currently enrolled UNLV students who have paid their Student Health and Mental Health Fees are eligible for confidential counseling services. Initial consultation appointments are available during office hours, Monday through Thursday from 8am–5pm and Fridays from 9am–5pm.

A crisis counselor is available during operating hours for situations that need immediate attention. After-hours phone crisis services are available by calling the CAPS main number 702-895-3627 and selecting the prompt to speak with a crisis counselor.

SAFETY

University Police Services

unlv.edu/police

University Police Services (UPD) is a full-service law enforcement agency operating patrol and dispatch services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, including police, emergency management, and other safety services.

RebelSAFE

unlv.edu/police/unlv#alert

RebelSAFE offers features to keep students safe, including real-time chats with University Police Dispatch, requests for Rebel Rides evening security escorts and shuttles, and anonymous crime tip submissions. RebelSAFE Alert is the emergency notification system used for incidents that present an imminent threat to life, health, or safety. Alert messages provide information and instructions on how to protect yourself during an emergency. Students are automatically enrolled in this system upon registration.

Rebel Rides Security Escorts

unlv.edu/police/units/student-cadets

Student Cadets provide walking and golf cart escort services for students to and from any campus location during the evening hours, based on availability.

Requests can be made by contacting the University Police Dispatch at 702-895-3668 or through the RebelSAFE App.

Emergency Call Boxes

unlv.edu/police/unlv#phones

RebelSAFE emergency phones are located throughout campus. They are illuminated by blue light and equipped with a 360-degree surveillance camera. They can be used to request help, report a crime in progress, report suspicious activities, request a Rebel Rides shuttle, or for any other emergency. Emergency calls from these phones will connect directly to University Police Dispatch or broadcast RebelSAFE Alerts via public address speakers.

Self-Defense Classes

unlv.edu/police/units/community-engagement

UPD offers Jane Jitsu Self-Defense classes to provide students with basic skills to escape an attacker and avoid dangerous situations whenever possible. These classes are intended to teach participants to take an active role in protecting their personal safety.

POLICIES

The Clery Act

unlv.edu/police/report

University Police Services maintains a comprehensive report regarding the campus public safety environment, including the incidence of crime. This report summarizes public safety and security policies in effect on campus. The Annual Security & Fire Safety Report and Crime Log are available online.

Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act

unlv.edu/studentwellness/health-center/drugfreeschools

UNLV is committed to creating and maintaining a campus environment free of alcohol and substance abuse. The university strives to maintain a campus community that fosters the highest personal and institutional integrity standards.

Academic Policies

catalog.unlv.edu

All new UNLV students are responsible for reviewing and abiding by the academic policies as stated in the current academic catalog.

unlv.edu/registrar/ferpa

The Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects student records privacy and disclosure rights. In compliance with FERPA, UNLV does not disclose personally identifiable information in student education records, except when authorized by law. Parents and guardians requesting access to student academic and financial records may only do so after the student has permitted them through a third-party release.

Title IX Compliance

unlv.edu/compliance/titleIX

Title IX is a federal law that prohibits discrimination based on sex in educational programs and activities that receive federal financial assistance. Examples of programs and activities subject to Title IX include admissions, recruitment, financial aid, academic programs, athletics, housing, and employment. Title IX also protects students from sexual harassment, including sexual violence.

Student Conduct Code

unlv.edu/studentconduct

The Student Conduct Code and the Student Academic Misconduct Policy are designed to promote awareness of student rights and responsibilities and establish accountability for student choices. Students accept the rights and responsibilities of membership in the university's academic and social community when they accept admission.

Americans With Disabilities Act

unlv.edu/drc

UNLV is committed to supporting students with disabilities by using advocacy, accommodations, and supportive services to ensure access to campus courses, services, and activities. The university facilitates reasonable accommodations in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Equal Educational & Employment Opportunity & Affirmative Action

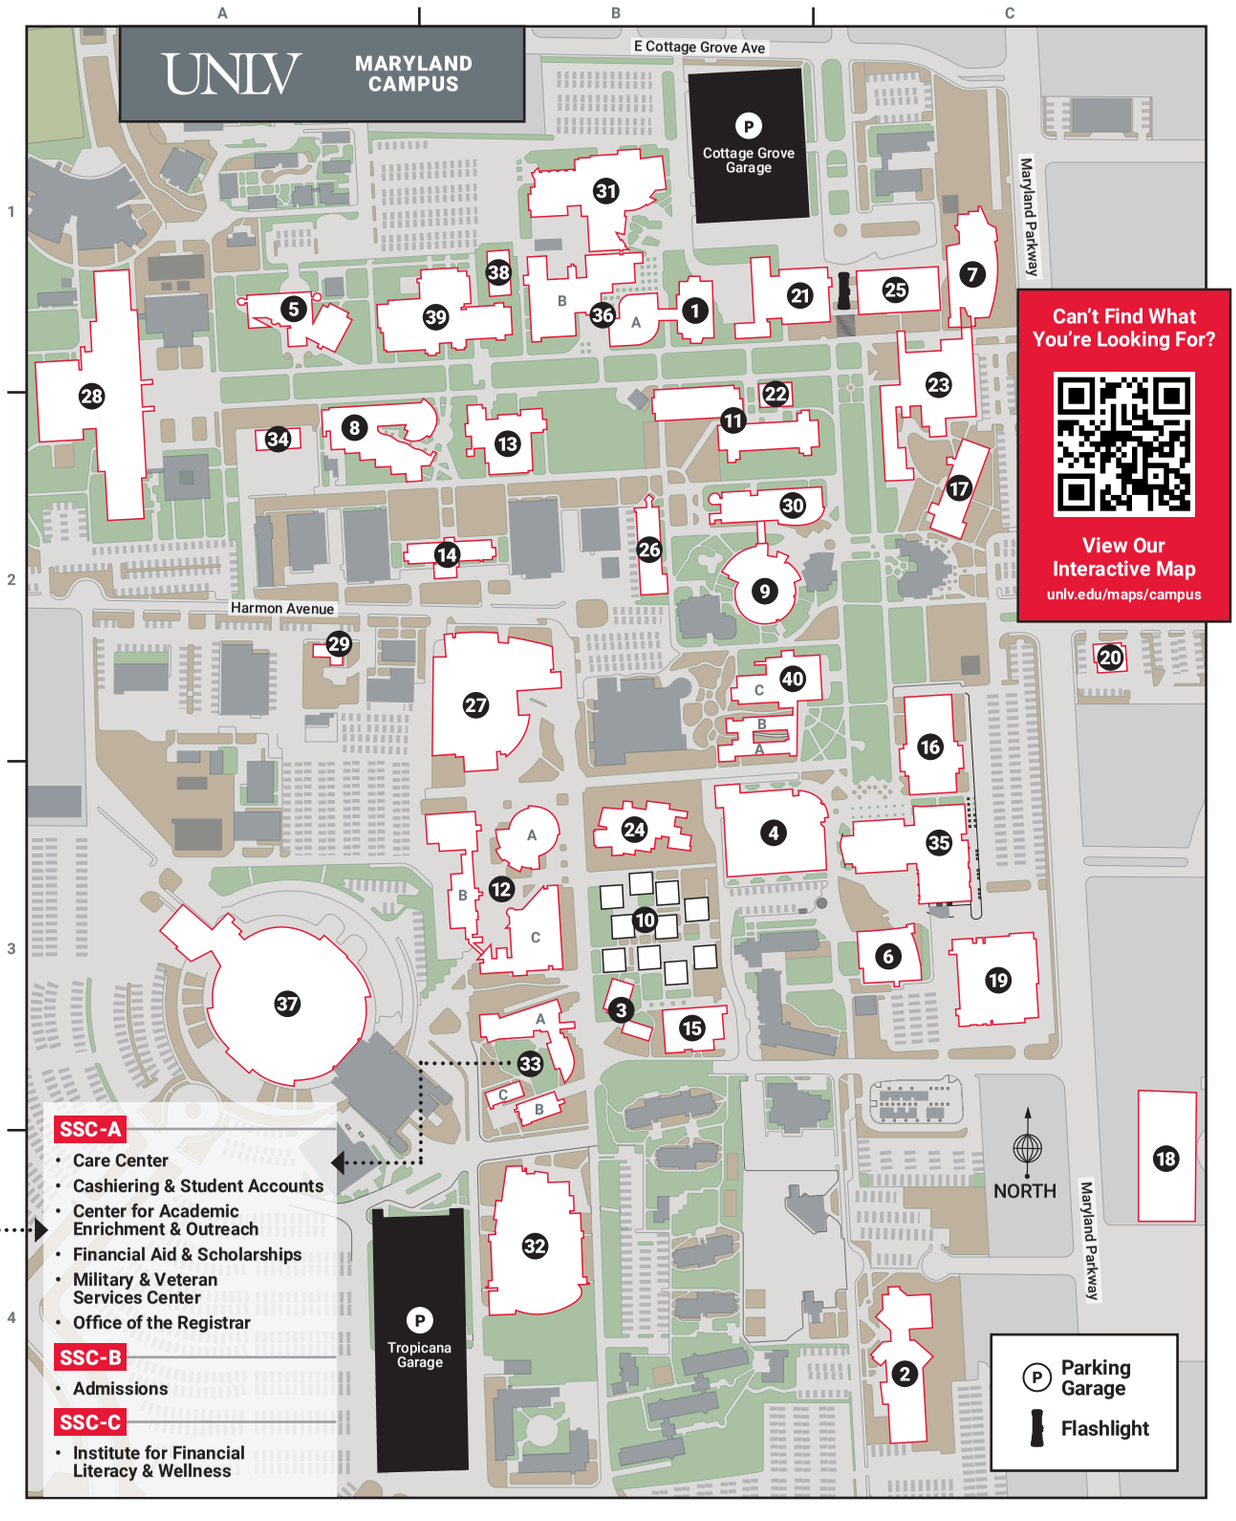

unlv.edu/compliance/statements

UNLV adheres to an equal education and employment opportunity and affirmative action program on its path to achieving excellence through diversity. The university complies with the laws, regulations, policies, and guidance prohibiting discrimination based on race, color, national origin, religion, gender, age, disability, or genetic information.
