

Internship Opportunity

The Adam Laxalt for U.S. Senate Campaign is continuing our Internship Program!

Interns will undergo extensive training to equip them with the skills needed to work as professional political staffers and field organizers.

Those who successfully complete the program will receive a letter of recommendation and class credit. Hours are flexible and schedules are adjustable to accommodate work, school, and family obligations.

Nevada's senatorial election will determine upper chamber control in Washington, D.C. and will be nationally followed; you have the unique opportunity to take part in it.
