REBELS TAKE CENTER STAGE

UNLV Alumni Association
Annual Alumni Awards
October 9, 2014
UNLV Greenspun Hall
Raise the curtain.

Turn on the spotlight.

The Rebels are taking center stage.

UNLV alumni across the globe are putting on performances in boardrooms and offices, in studios and on battlefields, in classrooms and in their communities. The stages differ, but the response remains the same. With their education and experience shining through, it's clear this is where they ought to be—on center stage.
For more than 30 years, the UNLV Alumni Association has recognized exceptional individuals who represent the ideals of higher learning and Rebel pride. Through the awards program, the Alumni Association recognizes alumni, faculty, students, and community leaders for their outstanding achievements and leadership at the university as well as throughout our community. These recipients truly serve as inspiration for the generations of students who will follow.

About the UNLV Alumni Association

The UNLV Alumni Association was established in 1964 as a not-for-profit organization to promote and enhance alumni engagement on campus.

To date, the association has contributed more than $6.6 million to the university in student scholarships, endowments, and major capital improvements such as the Alumni Amphitheater, Alumni Grove, Alumni Park, and the $2.7 million Richard Tam Alumni Center.

The UNLV Alumni Association is a leader in:

- Connecting alumni for life to the resources of the university
- Communicating UNLV news and happenings to our alumni
- Providing a network for alumni to meet one another; students and prospective students
About the Awards

Outstanding Alumnus/a of the Year Award
The Outstanding Alumnus/a of the Year award is the most prestigious honor given to an alumnus/a by the Alumni Association. It is bestowed in recognition of significant contributions supporting the UNLV community.

Silver State Award
This award of distinction is presented to a non-alumnus/a by the association for noteworthy contributions to the university and the community at large.

Achievement in Service Award
The Achievement in Service award gives recognition for service to UNLV, the UNLV student body, and/or the Alumni Association in support of alumni-related activities and events.

Outstanding Faculty Award
The Alumni Association recognizes a distinguished UNLV faculty member for their commitment to teaching, research, and service, as well as lasting contributions to student growth and development.

College Alumni of the Year Award
Recipients of the College Alumni of the Year award have demonstrated a history of outstanding service to UNLV and the community. Their personal and professional achievements bring acclaim to UNLV and its academic programs.
Program

Welcome
Kenneth Bahl, ’96—UNLV Alumni Association President

Remarks & Outstanding Faculty Member of the Year
John Valery White, JD
Seyhmus Baloglu, PhD, CHE—UNLV Executive Vice President and Provost

Lee Business School Alumnus of the Year
Brent Hathaway, PhD
Jerald M. Dick, ’65—Dean

School of Dental Medicine Alumna of the Year
Karen West, DMD
Rewadee Meevasin, DMD, ’07—Dean

Howard R. Hughes College of Engineering Alumnus of the Year
Rama Venkat, PhD
Chad W. Miller, ’92, JD—Dean

College of Fine Arts Alumnus of the Year
Helga Watkins
Joe Aldridge, ’79—Associate Dean

Honors College Alumnus of the Year
Marta Meana, PhD
Robert L. Smale, PhD, ’95—Dean

William F. Harrah College of Hotel Administration
Alumnus of the Year
Stowe Shoemaker, PhD
Gerard J. Inzerillo, ’75—Dean
William S. Boyd School of Law Alumnus of the Year
Daniel Hamilton, PhD, JD
Keith Brown, JD, ’05—Dean

College of Liberal Arts Alumna of the Year
Chris Hudgins, PhD
Nicole Ann Cavenagh, PhD, ’03 ’08—Dean

School of Nursing Alumna of the Year
Carolyn Yucha, PhD
Victoria VanMeetren, ’81 ’96 ’05—Dean

College of Sciences Alumnus of the Year
Timothy Porter, PhD
Tony Alamo, MD, ’86—Dean

Greenspun College of Urban Affairs Alumna of the Year
Robert Ulmer, PhD
Lisa Morris Hibbler, PhD, ’96 ’98—Dean

Achievement in Service Award
Kenneth Bahl, ’96
Randall J. Campanale, ’77—UNLV Alumni Association President

Silver State Award
Carolyn M. Sparks

Outstanding Alumnus of the Year
Brent J. Bell ’91

Closing Remarks
Awards

Outstanding Faculty Member of the Year

Dr. Seyhmus Baloglu, PhD, CHE is a professor and Harrah Distinguished Chair in the William F. Harrah College of Hotel Administration. He holds an MBA from Hawaii Pacific University and a doctoral degree in hospitality marketing from Virginia Tech University. He is a certified hospitality educator (CHE) by American Lodging Association and certified Total Quality Management facilitator.

Dr. Baloglu has been consistently included in citation report articles in the literature, as one of the most frequently cited scholars and significant contributors to the hospitality and tourism literature. His research credentials have earned him both an international reputation and placement on the editorial boards of more than ten hospitality and tourism journals.

Dr. Baloglu is a faculty member with few peers. He is an outstanding scholar, researcher, writer, and mentor to both faculty and graduate students. His work ethic serves as an inspiration to junior faculty members and doctoral students alike. He is a valuable member of the campus community who truly believes his work has the potential to change a student’s life.

Lee Business School

Jerald M. Dick, ’65 BS Business Administration is a retired real estate executive and developer. He came to UNLV on a basketball scholarship and played from 1963 to 1965 and graduated in UNLV’s second graduating class. Jerry was instrumental in the development of the Boulevard Mall on Maryland Parkway as a retail broker with Coldwell Banker & Co. from 1965 to 1969. Following the Boulevard Mall, he continued to successfully develop shopping malls. From 1981 to 1988, Jerry served as President of Limited Real Estate and increased the total number of stores from 300 to 3,500. He retired in 1988. In 1990, he started the next phase of his career as a consultant by founding GCD Consultants representing high-end retail stores. During this time, he worked on the redevelopment of Northpark Shopping Center in Dallas, Texas, a top 10 regional mall in the country. Jerry retired in 2011.

Jerry served on the Board of International Council of Shopping Centers. For many years, the council hosted the largest attended conventions in Las Vegas. Today, Jerry remains active through volunteer work. He is a member of the Board of Trustees for the UNLV Foundation and member of the UNLV Lee Business School’s Executive Advisory Board. He was one of the founders of the Runnin’ Rebels Club to support the UNLV men’s basketball team.
School of Dental Medicine

Dr. Rewadee Meevasin, '07 DMD, is the owner of Dee for Dentist. She is one of the leading proponents of digital dentistry in Las Vegas. Her interest in digital began as a reviewer of digital X-ray sensors and has evolved into being a beta tester for emerging dental technologies. Dr. Meevasin was the first female dentist in the Las Vegas Valley to acquire the CEREC Omnicam, a leading in-office CAD/CAM solution, followed by the acquisition of the Sirona Galileos CBCT to assist in guided implant surgery.

Born and raised in Las Vegas, Dr. Meevasin has made it a priority to give back to the community through the Dee for Dentist Fills Good Program as well as through volunteering her time and financial resources to various local charitable organizations. She holds a bachelor’s degree in biology from the University of California, Irvine and earned her doctor of dental medicine from the UNLV School of Dental Medicine.

Howard R. Hughes College of Engineering

Chad W. Miller, '92 BS Electrical Engineering, is a licensed attorney with nearly 20 years of experience practicing intellectual property law. After graduating from UNLV, he worked as a project manager at Nevada Power Company before attending law school in Portland, Oregon. He started his law career with several large firms in California before returning to Nevada in 2000 as a co-founder of Weide & Miller, Ltd. His technical background and degree in electrical engineering from UNLV provided a strong foundation to practice intellectual property law. His areas of expertise include patent prosecution in the electrical, software, gaming, and mechanical arts, and trademark prosecution.

Miller provides pro bono legal services to the UNLV College of Engineering Senior Design Competition and the Andre Agassi Foundation for Education. To date, he has filed 12 provisional patent applications and provided intellectual property guidance to 52 students participating in the Senior Design Competition. He frequently volunteers for non-profit organizations around the valley.
College of Fine Arts

Joe Aldridge, ’79 MA Theatre was first employed at UNLV 1974 to 1977. He returned in 1984 and served as technical director until 2005. He has been involved in producing more than 200 shows with the Theatre Department at UNLV. In 2005, he accepted the position of coordinator for the new entertainment engineering and design program. During his tenure at UNLV, he has mentored students in all aspects of theatre production. It is this commitment to safety and technical theatre innovation that separates Aldridge from anyone else in the business of technical theatre. He is the past president of the most prestigious technical theatre membership organization in the world: the United States Institute for Theatre Technology. He serves as the chair of the Nevada Resort Association/IATESE Local 720 Journeyman Training Trust which offers training to Las Vegas area stagehands. In 2014, he earned a second Bachelor of Arts degree from the National Labor College.

Aldridge served as the Artistic Director for Shakespeare under the Stars at the Emily Ann Theatre in Wimberley, Texas. This innovative program affords high school students the chance to learn all aspects of theatre in a summer-stock environment. He assists with safety training and OSHA compliance for the ICAP (IATSE Candidate Advancement Program), a national safety and skills training program. Through all of his work in education, both locally and nationally, he is well known by his students for his warmth and desire to mentor.

Honors College

Dr. Robert L. Smale, ’95 BA History and Spanish, graduated summa cum laude from UNLV Honors College. The Nevada Board of Regents chose him as the UNLV Student of the Year in 1995. During his senior year, Smale was named a finalist for the prestigious and nationally competitive Rhodes Scholarship. UNLV named him outstanding male athlete for four consecutive years beginning in 1992, and he served as captain of the UNLV swim team for two years.

Upon completion of his doctoral degree in history at University of Texas at Austin, Smale accepted a faculty position in the University of Missouri’s Department of History. His professional work centers on the sociopolitical history of Bolivia in the early twentieth century. He has been awarded numerous research fellowships for his work including a Fulbright-Hays Doctoral Dissertation Fellowship from the U.S. Department of Education. He considers his greatest professional accomplishment to be his book, “I Sweat the Flavor of Tin: Labor Activism in Early Twentieth Century Bolivia.” The book examines the lives of workers and artisans in an important mining region in Bolivia.
William F. Harrah College of Hotel Administration

Gerard J. Inzerillo, ’75 BS Hotel Administration, is CEO of Forbes Travel Guide which provides ratings and reviews of hotels, restaurants, and spas worldwide. He is a lifestyle visionary with more than four decades at the helm of some of the world’s leading hospitality companies, including Kerzner International Resorts where he significantly influenced the development of the One & Only brand and Atlantis Resorts; Ian Schrager Hotels where he conceptualized and launched such legendary hotels as Morgans, the Delano, and Royalton; and Sun City Resort where he coordinated major aspects of the 1994 inauguration of President Nelson Mandela.

Inzerillo completed the opening the $1.5 billion Atlantis – Dubai on Palm Island in 2008 considered by many as the most watched resort opening in modern time making the cover of Time Magazine. Most recently, he was President and CEO of IMG Artists, the leading artists’ management, lifestyle, and festival company.

William S. Boyd School of Law

Keith Brown, ’05 JD, is an associate general counsel at Southwest Gas Corporation, a position he has held for the last seven years; serving as counsel and senior counsel in the three years prior to advancing to his current position. Brown is licensed to practice law in Nevada, Arizona, California, and New Mexico. He primarily focuses on transactional and real property matters; as well as representing the company before the Arizona, California, and Nevada utility regulatory commissions.

Before beginning the law program at UNLV, Brown had a 24-year career in accounting and public utilities. He credits the night program at UNLV Boyd School of Law for successfully launching him onto a new and rewarding career path.

Recipient of the James E. Rogers Outstanding Scholastic Achievement Award, Brown holds the distinction of being the first UNLV law night program student to graduate at the top of his class. He was the first chair and editor of the Boyd Alumni Newsletter. He assists with editing for Boyd Briefs, an electronic newsletter publication.
Dr. Nicole Ann Cavenagh, ’03 MA Psychology and ’08 PhD Psychology, is a neuropsychologist and clinical director for Touro University Nevada Center for Autism and Developmental Disabilities and assistant professor at the Touro University Nevada College of Osteopathic Medicine. She also serves on the Nevada State Board of Osteopathic Medicine and is the co-training director of the Nevada Psychological Association Training Consortium internship program.

Dr. Cavenagh completed her predoctoral internship training at the University of California, Los Angeles’ David Geffen School of Medicine. She has played a central role in the development of the clinical psychology program at UNLV through supervising practicum experiences for doctoral trainees. She also created a paid pre-doc internship at Touro and has offered a residency/internship opportunity for UNLV students. Through her work at the Center for Autism and Developmental Disabilities, she is improving the lives of hundreds of children in the region.

Victoria VanMeetren, ’81 AA Nursing, ’96 BS Healthcare Administration, ’05 EMBA, is a leading expert in healthcare administration in Las Vegas Valley. She began her career as a registered nurse in 1981. After earning her bachelor’s degree in healthcare administration, VanMeetren was promoted to associate administrator at Valley Hospital in 1989. In 1996, she transitioned to Catholic Healthcare West (now Dignity Health) and was responsible for building a medical office building, two ambulatory surgical centers, a rehab center, urgent care clinic, and the Siena Campus. In 2004, VanMeetren returned to UNLV’s Executive MBA program after she applied for the president and CEO position of the San Martin Campus. She graduated in 2005 with her executive MBA, landed the job as CEO. She built a second hospital for Dignity Health, the San Martin Campus, which opened in 2006.

As CEO of the San Martin Campus, the hospital received the J.D. Power and Associate’s Distinguished Hospital Inpatient Service Award in 2011. The facility was a certified stroke hospital and had a certified chest pain program and a headache program through The Joint Commission. Under her leadership the hospital was ranked number one by U.S. World & News Report in the specialty areas of neurology and neurosurgery.

VanMeetren maintains active involvement in several community service organizations. She serves on the Board of Trustees for the Las Vegas Metro Chamber of Commerce and co-chairs their healthcare committee. She is also a member of the Foundation board for Nevada State College and serves on the Governor’s Workforce Investment Board as a member of the industry intelligence subcommittee. She has traveled with the UNLV EMBA Program to China, Africa, Poland, and Prague. She speaks routinely to audiences about healthcare changes with the Affordable Care Act and mentors students.
Awards

College of Sciences
Tony Alamo, '86 BA Chemistry, is the medical director of the Alamo Medical Clinic (multi-doctor group) specializing in internal medicine. After a six-year tenure with the Nevada Gaming Commission, Dr. Alamo was appointed chair by Governor Brian Sandoval in July 2014. He is the first person in Nevada history to have chaired both the Nevada Gaming Commission and the Nevada State Athletic Commission. While at UNLV, he was one of the founding members of the Student Ambassadors Program. After completing his bachelor’s, he left UNLV to attend the University of Southern California School of Medicine. A native Nevadan, he returned to the Las Vegas Valley to practice medicine in the community where he was raised. He served as the Chief of Staff of two hospitals – Sunrise Hospital and Children’s Medical Center in 2002-2004 and St. Rose Hospital’s San Martin Campus from 2006-2009.

During his seven-year tenure on the Nevada State Athletic Commission, Dr. Alamo served as its chair and had the privilege of sanctioning the largest bout in boxing history - Oscar De La Hoya versus Floyd Mayweather in May 2007. He addressed many other interesting and difficult decisions, the most notable being the denial for licensure of Mike Tyson in January 2002. During this time, he also coauthored a paper in the Journal of Neurotrauma regarding traumatic brain injury in unarmed combatants. He was instrumental in mandating hepatitis testing in all athletes. In 2006, he was the first civilian to be awarded the “Medal of Unit Valor” for “Valorous Conduct” in a hostage barricade situation from Las Vegas Metro Police Department. Dr. Alamo is a member of the board of directors of Bank of George.

Greenspun College of Urban Affairs
Dr. Lisa Morris Hibbler, '96 BA Environmental Studies, '98 MPA, is the deputy director of the City of Las Vegas Office of Community Services. She manages $15 million in programs and services related to education reform, affordable housing, neighborhood revitalization, youth afterschool programs, Safekey, and community initiatives including, but not limited to the Mayor’s Faith Initiative and ending homelessness. Dr. Hibbler also serves as Mayor Goodman’s advisor on education.

After earning her degrees from UNLV, Dr. Morris Hibbler attended University of La Verne and received a doctoral degree in public administration in 2005. Dr. Hibbler is president of the Psi Upsilon Omega graduate chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. As a devoted public servant, Dr. Hibbler spends most of her time working on community issues related to juvenile justice reform, promoting adoption and foster care, and preparing youth to enter post-secondary education. She was appointed by Governor Sandoval to the Advisory Commission on the Administration of Justice and the Juvenile Justice Commission. Dr. Morris Hibbler also serves on the advisory board for the UNLV School of Environmental and Public Affairs.
Awards

Achievement in Service

Randall J. Campanale, CFA ’77, BS Finance, is a Chartered Financial Analyst with more than 30 years of experience in wealth management. He currently serves as senior vice president and senior portfolio manager for The Northern Trust Company. Campanale has been the head of investment management for Nevada at First Interstate Capital Management and regional manager with Wells Fargo Private Client Services. He was also a senior vice president and a founding executive officer in the formation of Western National Trust Company for Zions Bancorp and senior vice president at First National Wealth Management.

Campanale is a past president of the CFA Society of Nevada and has served on many investment committees for various non-profits. He has served as a board member for the American Heart Association – Western States Affiliates, The Las Vegas Natural History Museum Board, Las Vegas Rotary Club, and Nellis AFB Support Team. He served as vice chair of the board for The Public Education Foundation, an independent non-profit in Nevada dedicated to supporting public education, and former chair of the American Heart Association and past president of the Las Vegas Rotary Club.

Campanale has been a passionate and dedicated supporter of UNLV and alumni over the past 30 years. He served on the board of directors of the UNLV Alumni Association from 1984-1994. He represented the interests of alumni on the UNLV Intercollegiate Athletic Council and on the Pew Foundation Task Force for UNLV. He co-chaired UNLV Career Day with Scott Johnson and they dramatically increased the number of employers participating by personally calling employers. He co-chaired the UNLV Legislative Liaison Committee and led a team of volunteers who convinced legislators to provide funding critical to support the rapid growth at UNLV.

In 1994, he was honored as a Distinguished Alumnus of the then College of Business and Economics at UNLV.
Silver State Award

Carolyn M. Sparks is a former regent and chair of the Board of Regents for the Nevada System of Higher Education (NSHE). Sparks and her husband, Kenneth, founded International Insurance Services, Ltd. in 1966, and she serves as President. She was appointed by then Governor Richard Bryan to the Statewide Committee for the Funding of Higher Education in 1987. She was also appointed by Governor Bob Miller as the Statewide Co-Chairman of the State of Nevada’s 125th Anniversary Committee for 1989-1990 and in 2004, she was appointed to the Nevada State Taxi Cab Authority by Governor Kenny Guinn.

Sparks served on the board of directors for the Showboat Hotel & Casino from 1991 until it was sold to Harrah’s. She followed her father, Fred Morledge, who was one of the builders and original partners. She was on the board of directors of PriMerit Bank from 1988 until it merged with another banking institution, and she was a long-time member of the board of directors of Southwest Gas Corporation.

As a native of Southern Nevada, Sparks’ humanitarian efforts for the community are many and varied, from her earliest involvement as area chairman for the American Cancer Society and fundraiser for Junior Mesquite Club and Home of the Good Shepherd to her current work with the Nevada Children’s Center. She founded the Southern Nevada Memorial Hospital Foundation (now known as the University Medical Center Foundation), the Children’s Miracle Network Telethon, the Nevada Children’s Center; and the Nevada Children’s Center Foundation.

Sparks remains active with the International Women’s Forum and the Rotary Club of Las Vegas. She is also a past president of the Salvation Army Advisory Board and remains on the board. In addition, she serves as a member of the board of trustees for UNLV Foundation. In 2014, she received the Distinguished Nevadan Award from the Board of Regents of the Nevada System of Higher Education.
Awards

Outstanding Alumnus of the Year
Brent J. Bell, ’91, BS-BA Business Administration, is president and CEO of the Las Vegas-based, family-owned Whittlesea-Bell Transportation, one of the oldest and largest private transportation conglomerates in Nevada. Whittlesea-Bell Transportation, including Whittlesea Blue Cab Company, Henderson Taxi, Presidential Limousine, and Bell Trans, the largest single-city limousine company in the nation, employs more than 1,750 people and manages a fleet of more than 900 vehicles. In addition to managing the transportation business, Bell serves as president of Bell United Insurance Company, a private insurance company founded to insure the Whittlesea-Bell fleet.

In his efforts to operate and support environmentally friendly “green” companies, Bell has become an industry leader in moving fleets toward alternative fuel. In 2012, he co-founded World CNG SW, LLC, the only conversion company in Nevada up-fitting unleaded gasoline burning vehicles to compressed natural gas (CNG) and began converting the company’s taxicab and mini-bus fleets reducing harmful greenhouse emissions by over 30% per vehicle.

Due to his more than 28 years of hard work and knowledge of the industry, Bell has become one of the industry’s strongest advocates. He co-founded and serves as the first and current president of the trade organization, the Livery Operators Association of Las Vegas—a professional organization of taxicab, shuttle bus and limousine operators whose core mission is to ensure the safety of the traveling public and foster strong economic conditions for the industry by working closely with state regulators and convention and tourism officials.

Bell is not only a native of Nevada, but also a proud graduate and supporter of UNLV’s Lee Business School. He served as president of the Lee Business School Alumni Chapter and was honored in 2005 as the Outstanding Alumnus of the Year. Bell continues to support UNLV by serving on the Dean’s Advisory Board and as a founding member of the Executive Mentor Program, and is a regular guest speaker at the Lee Business School at UNLV. His community service also includes being a board member of Opportunity Village Foundation and chair of Crime Stoppers of Nevada.
Executive Board of Directors

Ken Bahl, ’96, President
John Hunt, ’79, First Vice President
Hank Melton, ’78, Second Vice President
Patrick Smith, ’97 ’01, Third Vice President
Dr. Michael Gordon, ’08, ’13 Secretary
Lori Marrs, ’86, Treasurer
Sandra Phillips Johnson, ’95 ’00, Immediate Past President

Board Members

Rick Arpin, ’95
Laura Browning, ’94 ’98 ’01
Joe Cain, ’01
Rhone D’Errico, ’12
Shelly Dunbar, ’07
Joe Gulino, ’90
Jeff Grace, ’89 ’90
Alex DeJesus, ’04, President – Fine Arts Chapter
Liane Lee, ’05 – President – Urban Affairs Chapter
Holly Mae Lindsay, ’99 – President – Hotel Chapter
Mike Maier, ’86, President – Engineering Chapter
Paul Moradkhan, ’03
Mickey Norton, ’03
John Piro, ’05 ’10, President – Law Chapter
Erica Racek,’97’01, President – Business Chapter
Mark Rich, ’79
Lisa Story, ’84
Dr. Emily Whipple, ’08, President – Dental Chapter

Ex-Officio Board Members

Donald D. Snyder, UNLV President
Dr. William G. Boldt, UNLV Vice President for University Advancement
Michael W. Yackira, UNLV Foundation Board of Trustees Chairman
Tina Kunzer-Murphy, ’75 ’77, UNLV Athletics Director
Elias Benjelloun, CSUN Student Body President
Sharon Young, ’10, GPSA President
James Ratigan, ’78, UNLV Alumni Association Executive Director
UNLV Alumni Association appreciates the leadership and support of our Nevada System of Higher Education Board of Regents and the President’s Cabinet.

NSHE Board of Regents

Kevin J. Page, Chairman
Rick Trachok, Vice Chairman
Dr. Andrea Anderson
Robert J. Blakely
Cedric Crear
Mark W. Doubrava, MD
Jason Geddes, PhD
Ron Knecht
James Dean Leavitt
Kevin C. Melcher
Dr. Jack Lund Schofield
Allison Stephens
Michael B. Wixom
Scott G. Wasserman, Chief of Staff and Special Counsel to the Board

President’s Cabinet

Donald D. Snyder, President
John Valery White, JD
Gerry Bomotti
William G. Boldt, EdD
Juanita Fain, PhD
Thomas C. Piechota, PhD
Tina Kunzer-Murphy, ’75 ’77
Nancy B. Rapoport, JD
Elda Luna Sidhu, Esq, ’96 ’01
Rainier Spencer, PhD
Fred Tredup, EdD, ’78 ’80
Luis Valera, JD, ’98 ’05
The UNLV Alumni Association thanks the following sponsors for their generous support of the 2014 Homecoming festivities:

Signature Sponsors:

- VICE PRESIDENT FOR STUDENT AFFAIRS

- Southern Wine and Spirits of Nevada

- Liberty Mutual Insurance

Special Thanks to the Following:

- Office of the President
- Office of the Vice President for University Advancement
- UNLV Alumni Association Board of Directors
- Office of Alumni Relations
- Aramark – UNLV Catering
- Office of University Communications
- Reprographics and Design Services
- Student Union and Event Services
- UNLV Alumni Association Events Committee
- UNLV Photo Services
- Volunteers from the Campus Community

Rebel License Plate Funds Scholarships

Since its introduction in 1994, the UNLV license plate program has raised nearly $1,300,000—the proceeds of which benefit athletics and scholarship endowments.

Order your UNLV license plate and support scholarships for UNLV students!

Visit our website to learn more at www.unlv.edu/plate.
Rebel License Plate Funds Scholarships

Since its introduction in 1994, the UNLV license plate program has raised nearly $1,300,000—the proceeds of which benefit athletics and scholarship endowments.

Order your UNLV license plate and support scholarships for UNLV students!

Visit our website to learn more at www.unlv.edu/plate.