UNLV Early Studies Program

Expect Success . . . Early!

The Academic Success Center’s (ASC) Early Studies Program is a dual enrollment platform for motivated Nevada high school students to get a head start on their college education. Early Studies students can:

• Enroll in new, exciting, and challenging courses
• Become part of a large, diverse, research university
• Earn dual credit (university and high school credit) with the approval of their high school counselors
• Receive full access to Academic Success Center resources

Courses

Early Studies students are eligible to enroll in up to 8 credits per semester and can accumulate up to 24 credits throughout the program. They can enroll in courses for which they meet the prerequisites, most of which are 100- and 200-level courses.

To see which courses are available, search UNLV’s class schedule through MyUNLV. Students will need to complete one of several placement options to enroll in English and/or Math classes - please see an advisor for further information.

Program Eligibility

Interested Nevada high school students of all levels (Grades 9-12) are eligible for the program. There is no high school GPA requirement, but students with high academic standing are strongly recommended.

Enrollment Steps

• Apply as a Non-Degree Seeking student (Early Studies Program) and submit application fee
• Complete the Early Studies Program Student Participation Form (www.unlv.edu/asc)
• Call (702) 895-3177 to arrange an appointment with the ASC Early Studies Advisor several weeks before the start of the semester/session
• Submit your completed form when you meet with your ASC Early Studies Advisor
• Enroll in UNLV courses

Program Fees

Although there is no additional charge for the program, Early Studies students pay the same tuition and fees per credit as other Non-Degree Seeking UNLV undergraduate students.
