OVERVIEW

Do you have experience with glass, doorways, escalators, elevators, mechanical, electrical or plumbing systems but don’t want to break your back any longer?

Are you tired of being considered nonessential and unappreciated?

Do you have a passion for life-safety, helping others and teaching the right way to get things done?

If you answered “YES” to all of these questions, then you MUST apply to join the NOVA team right away. NOVA Geotechnical and Inspection Services is looking to immediately grow its team of brilliant and passionate scientists, engineers and building sciences specialists and needs more “hands on” team members to support the building envelope, MEP systems and Property Condition services. A qualified individual will have the experience, passion and desires outlined herein and the appropriate work authorizations. A qualified individual will be ready to learn, willing to take certification exams and prepared to become a critical and essential member of the NOVA team and of the community we protect and build!

Job Requirements:

• A working knowledge of computer programs i.e., Microsoft Office, Outlook, etc.
• Valid driver’s license.

With our focus being “Quality, from the ground up!”, NOVA employees become leaders in their respective fields and are in the driver seat of their own careers. NOVA focuses heavily on culture by supporting our team through mentorship, educational training, a positive work environment, and fun employee events. We share a passion for creating positive change and growing together as a team and as a community.
NOVA Geotechnical and Inspection Services is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
