GRADUATE STUDENT MENTOR

Posting ID: EM197054BD
Company: The Southern Nevada Northern Arizona Louis Stokes Alliances for Minority Participation
Company Website: http://caeo.unlv.edu/lsamp/
Work Location: Las Vegas, NV
Salary: $20/hr
College Level(s): Graduate Student

OVERVIEW

The Southern Nevada Northern Arizona Louis Stokes Alliances for Minority Participation (SNNA-LSAMP), a project funded through the National Science Foundation (NSF), seeks to hire eight Graduate Student Mentors (GSMs). This is a part-time position.

Roles and Responsibilities
Each GSM will be required to complete training provided through SNNA-LSAMP and its partners, will be assigned an annual caseload of approximately 20 undergraduate mentees, and will be expected to meet (in-person or electronically) with each of his or her mentees (individually or in small groups) at least twice per month. Typical mentoring activities include providing guidance and encouragement to succeed in STEM disciplines, introducing mentees to the professional organizations in STEM disciplines, and providing feedback on the mentee’s academic progress. In addition, GSMs will advise mentees on the graduate school application process.

Education and Qualifications
Candidates for this position must:

● Be an enrolled UNLV graduate student in a STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math) discipline;
● Demonstrate the knowledge and ability to work with and counsel individuals from groups traditionally underrepresented in higher education. Knowledge of AANAPISI, LSAMP, TRIO, GEAR UP and/or similar programs for disadvantaged students is preferred.
How to Apply
To apply, please submit a letter of interest, resume, and a list of three references to:

joshua.gainey@unlv.edu