Emerald Firm invests in the future, not just in terms of the environment and our careful use of natural resources, but especially in our people. By visiting secondary schools, colleges and university campuses throughout the world, we invite students to get to know Emerald and our industry. Our solutions are present all around us and help to make lives more comfortable. We offer students the opportunity to contribute to that in a number of ways.

Roles and Responsibilities
Various positions are open, ranging from Industrial Engineer Intern, Maintenance Intern, Operations Support Intern, Process Engineer Intern, Project Engineer Intern. More information can be found on our website.

Education and Qualifications
Required Experience:
No prior internship required, but preferred. Leadership experience is a plus.

Required Education:
Completion of 2 consecutive years of college level coursework in related field required.

How to Apply