OVERVIEW

Wunderlich-Malec Engineering is seeking a Systems Engineer, part or full-time.

Wunderlich-Malec is one of the largest and most well-established (35+ years) engineering companies in the United States, with 25+ offices throughout the U.S. and 400+ professionals on staff. They are confident that their qualified staff has the knowledge, experience, and talent to create and deliver the unique solutions customers require for their facility, process, or operational needs.

Roles and Responsibilities

Looking for someone that has experience:

- Configuring and managing Microsoft Windows 2012R2 and/or 2016;
- Setting up and managing Symantec Endpoint Protection Manager in an isolated environment utilizing LUA;
- Configuration and maintenance of Microsoft SQL servers; and maintaining Ethernet networks. Candidate also needs to be capable of writing system specifications, design documents, test procedures and training materials.
- Experience creating desktop, mobile and web applications using .Net that interface with Microsoft SQL and exposure to process controls, building management systems, or industrial safety controls a plus. 2-5 Years of Experience

Education and Qualifications

- Bachelor’s degree in Computer Science or related field, or an associate’s degree with experience
- Microsoft Windows Server 2012 and 2016
- Microsoft Windows 7 and 10
- Symantec Endpoint Protection, SEPM and LUA
- Microsoft SQL Server management, queries, stored procedures and triggers
- Ubuntu Server, HTML 5, Java and Python
- Networking, Firewalls and Active Directory, VPN
Preferred Skills

- Microsoft certification
- Experience implementing back end services and integration with external systems
- Experience creating front end applications with .Net, C# and HTML
- Write system specifications, design documents, test procedures and training materials
- Experience with Agile Development methodologies

How to Apply
Click here to Apply!