OVERVIEW

The City of Henderson welcomes applications to fill one (1) vacancy for the classification of Utility Services Student Intern in the Department of Utility Services.

Roles and Responsibilities
Under direct supervision, performs work of routine difficulty designed to provide hands on learning experience related to the Engineering, GIS, or Infrastructure Planning Divisions of the City's Utility Services Department; and performs related duties as assigned.

This is a part-time, non PERS-eligible position

This position is not eligible for any benefits
Work schedule will consist of an average of 19 hours per week. Hours per week may increase or decrease based on candidate availability/department need

Education and Qualifications
Graduation from high school or equivalent
Must be currently enrolled as an undergraduate or graduate student in an accredited college or university program with a major in engineering, construction management, architecture, GIS or a closely related field.
Must possess and maintain a valid Nevada or "border state" driver's license, as defined by NRS 483
Desirable: Experience with AutoCAD and/or GIS Software

How to Apply
https://www.governmentjobs.com/careers/henderson/jobs/2642342/utility-services-student