

UNLV may release information with or without prior consent of a student. If you would like to restrict who we may release that information to, you can add a "No Release" to your student account. If you want to know what kind of information is considered Directory visit our website at <https://www.unlv.edu/registrar/ferpa>. Remember, we can NEVER release Non-Directory information without your prior consent (using the 3rd Party Release in your Student Center)

No-Release

1. A no release tells University employees what types of organizations they can give your directory information to. This can be done by clicking the Personal Information tile in your Rebel Student Homepage

A. Select Privacy Restrictions from menu on the left

B. Read the disclaimer and select the privacy option

i. Please NOTE the following:

1. Directory information will not appear in any publication (such as the Graduation Program) if there is a restriction (commercial or non-commercial)
2. Allowing release of information ONLY applies to Directory information. Non-directory information is not releasable unless a 3rd party has been designated access (using the 3rd party release in the Rebel Student Homepage or using the Paper Form)

C. You can change your Privacy Restrictions at any time as long as you can access your MyUNLV account

- i. If you no longer have access to your account, contact OIT to reset your password so you can make changes
