Recognized Organizations

American Association for Dental Research Student Research Group
The UNLV School of Dental Medicine American Association for Dental Research Student Research Group promotes student research in dentistry and its related disciplines; promotes the advancement of dental research and related aspects; and to further the stated aims and objectives of the AADR and the IADR as they relate to student research. For more information, please contact Dr. Karl Kingsley.

American Student Dental Association
American Student Dental Association is a dental student-run organization. It introduces student to lifelong involvement in organized dentistry and provides services, information, education, representation and advocacy.

Asian American Dental Student Association
Asian American Dental Student Association serves to: provide a voice for Asian dental students at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas School of Dental Medicine; promote awareness and understanding of different cultures in an effort to bridge any gaps between international students, domestic students, faculty, staff and community; promote the oral health of the Asian community in Nevada through improved education, prevention and treatment; foster research and knowledge concerning Asian dental problems and disseminate this information to both Asian dental professionals and to the dental community at large; communicate research findings on Asian populations to various agencies and the public; stimulate interest and encourage entry of Asians into oral health careers; promote a social environment for dental students; encourage the development and maintenance of the Asian culture within the university and provide cultural and educational experiences for non-Asian students who wish to learn more about Asian cultures.

Black Graduate Student Association
The association promotes community, scholarship, professionalism and excellence.

Black Law Students Association
The Black Law Students Association exists for the support, guidance and direction of Black students in academic, professional and social endeavors. Their main function is to assist members in the development of their legal careers and to provide opportunities for exposure to various areas and aspects of the legal profession. The BLSA recognizes the need to act positively in the development of the Black community, to encourage cooperation and closer ties between members of the law school's Black community and to establish a vehicle through which their concerns are brought to bear on Boyd Law School policy and the community at large. For more information please contact Seleste Hamilton.
C. Wright Mills Sociology Club
The purpose of this Society shall be to promote leadership, scholarship, and fellowship in the study of sociology, research of social problems, and such other social and intellectual activities while providing access to the field of sociology for all interested university students.

Christian Grads
Christian Grads provides an opportunity of the fellowship of Christian Grads to focus on discovering, developing, and deploying Christian leaders. Christian Grads is a national organization with local community groups meeting on 40+ university campus across the globe. For more information about this student organization and their parent organization, visit their website. This student group is open to current UNLV graduate students and UNLV graduate alumni and their significant others.

Dental Anesthesia Club for Students
Provide a voice for students at the University of Nevada Las Vegas School of Dental medicine that are interested in furthering their education in Dental Anesthesia; promote understanding of anesthesia and specifically, the specialty of Dental Anesthesia to the students, faculty, staff and community; foster research and knowledge concerning Dental Anesthesia and disseminate this information to both dental professionals and to the dental community at large; communicate research findings on Dental Anesthesia to various agencies and the public; stimulate interest and encourage entry of dental students into the Dental Anesthesia specialty; promote a social environment for dental students; and provide educational experiences for dental students who wish to learn more about Dental Anesthesia. For more information, please contact Julie Mercado.

Higher Education Student Leadership Association
(HESLA) shall serve as the collective voice and represent the needs of all students associated with the UNLV Higher Education program to the university, college, department, and community; assist in the promotion of the UNLV Higher Education program and provide an orientation for new students; promote the development of future leaders within the field of higher education; facilitate the formation of co-curricular activities and professional development events that foster interaction among Higher Education program students, faculty, and staff, as well as university professionals and abide by all laws and policies as set forth by the university, local, state, and federal governments. For more information, contact President Peter Rinto.

MBA Student Association
MBA Student Association serves to promote the UNLV MBA Program and to assist in its development. The goal of the MBA Association is to augment the MBA curriculum by providing MBA students with a focused graduate experience in business that enhances their leadership and professional capabilities.

Movies that Matter Student Association
MTM shows films that matter in an effort to start a discussion of real societal issues. This student group collaborates with other organizations to promote injustices witnessed within society. MTM informs the public about many important issues that may not be covered in the popular media. This student group’s goal is to show films still on the film circuit or recently distributed.

Student Affiliates in School Psychology
The purpose of SASP is to provide an integrated communication network for graduate students concerning legislative issues impacting the future of our profession, professional/ethical issues, internship/employment opportunities, shared concerns across a variety of topics, and information across other disciplines of psychology. Please contact President Jennifer Guttman for more information.

UNLV Cares Food Pantry
The UNLV Cares Food Pantry collects donations from the UNLV community to assist students and staff during these tough economic times. The idea is to provide some mode of support for members of the UNLV community struggling to afford food through a discreet system that allows Rebels to help one another. We are counting on campus generosity to restock our shelves, so please drop off canned goods at donation boxes located at: Science and Engineering Building, Lied Library, Law Library, Student Union, and Wellness Center with more locations to come. If you wish to be a beneficiary of this program or know of UNLV community members in need, food items will be available at varying dates and times to accommodate varying schedules. IDs are not checked of those that utilize the Food Pantry. Policy is: open to everyone at UNLV. Also, if you are in a teaching position please let your students know that this resource is available to them. The UNLV Cares Food Pantry is located at 851 East Tropicana Avenue PAR600 Building, Las Vegas, NV 89119 For questions, please email us at: unlvcaresfoodpantry@gmail.com, or call 702-895-2261. Visit us on Facebook.

UNLV Chapter of the Council for Exceptional Children
The purpose of this chapter shall be to advance the education of individuals with exceptionalities and to promote related educational, scientific and charitable purposes. Specifically, the chapter intends to assist and provide support to the council for Exceptional Children (CEC) in all its efforts on behalf of persons with exceptionalities, and to participate in all appropriate governance activities of CEC subject to the general supervision and control of CEC. For more information, please contact Samantha Riggleman.