Latin@ Heritage Month Trivia
Online
Visit the SODA Facebook page during September to increase your chances of winning!

September 18-27
Water by the Spoonful
8:00 pm Black Box Theatre

When a young Puerto Rican man returns home from Iraq, he discovers his family members in turmoil. Through the strength of family and the community of chat rooms, we see his “search for human connections in a harsh and destabilizing world” (Time).

September 20
UNLV Jazz Ensemble I & UNLV Latin Jazz Ensemble: CD Release Concert
2:00 pm | Artemus W. Ham Concert Hall | $10

UNLV’s Jazz Ensemble I and Latin Jazz Ensemble perform tracks from their newly released CD.

September 22
Stand Up, Speak Out
5:30-7:00 PM | SU 211

Stand Up. Speak Out. uses various platforms to talk about social justice topics. Participants engage in the process of accountability and advocacy to support the issue and/or community highlighted. Join us for a presentation from Claudia Rodriguez, a writer/performer from Compton. She received her MFA in creative writing from the California Institute of Arts and recently published her first collection of poetry titled “Everybody’s Bread”.

September 24
Oye Mi Canto: The Majority Minority
5:00-6:30 PM | SU Ballroom

Join us for a night of celebration, food, music, and engaging panelist sharing stories of navigating life as the majority minority! Hear the voices of prominent Latin@ UNLV faculty, staff, and community members as they discuss the connections between identity, life, work, and current trends.

September 28
M.E.Ch.A. Meeting
6:00-7:30 PM | Housells House

Hola a todos! M.E.Ch.A. is an organization of Chican/o students and allies here at UNLV. Together, we want to create a community devoted to political activism, social justice, and higher education. If you're interested, come to one of our weekly Monday meetings!

September 29
Banned Books Buffet: We Need Diverse Books
3:00-5:00 pm | Lied Library

Explore a banned book... Discover recently challenged materials... Celebrate intellectual freedom

October 12
SHPE General Meeting
5:30-7:30 pm | Room TBEA 107

Come join the Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers to find out about our upcoming events. Hear from professional guest speakers, and become part of the SHPE familia! Free food and drinks. Hope to see you there!