THESIS / DISSERTATION FORMAT CHECK (This section is only applicable to theses and dissertations)

- This document is formatted according to the most recent guidelines on the UNLV Graduate College website: <https://graduatecollege.unlv.edu/current/thesis/>.
- I understand that if the document is not approved, the student will be contacted and will need to make all necessary changes and resubmit the document for review in a timely manner.
- I understand that I may request an embargo of my document via the form available on the Graduate College website at: https://www.unlv.edu/sites/default/files/page_files/27/GradCollege-EmbargoRequestForm.pdf.
- I understand that students are bound by the deadlines for the semester of graduation and that documents must be submitted, revised and uploaded to ProQuest by the required deadlines or the student's graduation may be delayed to the following semester.
- I understand that all content revisions must be complete before submitting the document to the Graduate College for format review.
- I understand that once the document has been approved, the student will be contacted and provided with directions regarding final electronic submission of the document into ProQuest, and that his/her degree cannot be conferred until the format is approved and the document is submitted properly to ProQuest.
- I understand that the document will be copied from ProQuest to the digital repository, where it will be stored in the UNLV library archive and that I have the option to embargo my document.
- I understand that no additional changes will be allowed to the document once it has been uploaded to ProQuest.

Does the document meet all of the UNLV Graduate College formatting requirements? Yes No
