The Graduate College at UNLV promotes excellence in graduate education and fosters a community of graduate faculty and student scholars, while working with a diverse array of more than 5,000 graduate and professional students from more than 150 areas of academic specialization.

Sponsorships are available at a variety of levels and gift-in-kind options and include opportunities to share information about your organization through participation on printed and digital materials, promoted items, marketing booths, and creative options.

August 23

New Graduate Assistant Orientation welcomes students into their roles and provides training for the upcoming year. New Graduate Student Orientation welcomes the newest class of Grad Rebels to campus.

Events across campus | Estimated attendees: 500+ students

November 1

The Rebel Grad Slam: 3-Minute Thesis Competition and reception is a fast-paced research rumble highlighting innovative and impactful work by challenging graduate students to a 3-minute/1-slide presentation showcasing their research to the audience and judges.

Science and Engineering Building | Estimated outreach: 6,000+ students, alumni, faculty, staff, and community members

November 7 & 8

#RebelsGive, a day of giving, is an opportunity for students, staff, faculty, alumni, and community members to come together in support of UNLV. Opportunities to sponsor matching challenges are available.

Events across campus | Estimated outreach: 6,000+ students, alumni, faculty, staff, and community members

Contact:

Elizabeth Kahane, Director of Development
elizabeth.kahane@unlv.edu | (702) 895-3429