Spring 2018 Sponsorship Opportunities

The Graduate College at UNLV promotes excellence in graduate education and fosters a community of graduate faculty and student scholars, while working with a diverse array of more than 5,000 graduate and professional students from more than 145 areas of academic specialization.

Sponsorships are available at a variety of levels and gift-in-kind options and include opportunities to share information about your organization through participation on printed and digital materials, promotional items, marketing booths, and creative options.

January 8-12
The Grad Rebel Writing Boot Camp is a week-long program that provides graduate students with the skills and knowledge necessary to become more efficient, successful and confident writers.

Lied Library | Estimated outreach: 4,500+ graduate students

January 12
New Graduate Student Orientation welcomes the newest class of Grad Rebels to campus.

Events across campus | Estimated attendees: 125+ students

February 2
Inspiration, Innovation, Impact: A Celebration of Graduate Student Research showcases outstanding graduate students from a variety of colleges who give short TED-style talks or performances.

Student Union Ballroom | Estimated outreach: 6,000+ graduate students, alumni, faculty, staff, and community members

April 3-8
Grad Rebel Recognition Week celebrates the accomplishments and achievements of UNLV’s outstanding graduate student community during national Graduate-Professional Student Appreciation Week.

Events across campus | Estimated outreach: 4,500+ graduate students

Contact: Elizabeth Kahane, Associate Director of Development | elizabeth.kahane@unlv.edu | (702) 895-3429