

SPRING 2020 SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The Graduate College at UNLV promotes excellence in graduate education and fosters a community of graduate faculty and student scholars, while working with a diverse array of more than 5,000 graduate and professional students from more than 150 areas of academic specialization.

Sponsorships are available at a variety of levels and gift-in-kind options and include opportunities to share information about your organization through participation on printed and digital materials, promoted items, marketing booths, and creative options.

January 6-10

The Grad Rebel Writing Boot Camp is a week-long program that provides graduate students with the skills and knowledge necessary to become more efficient, successful and confident writers.

Lied Library | Estimated outreach: 5,000+ students

January 17

New Graduate Student Orientation welcomes the newest Grad Rebels to campus.

Events across campus | Estimated attendees: 125+ students

February 28

Inspiration, Innovation, Impact showcases outstanding graduate students from a variety of colleges who give short TED-style talks or performances.

Student Union Ballroom | Estimated outreach: 25,000+ students, alumni, faculty, staff, and community members

April 10

The Graduate Showcase is an opportunity for graduate students and postdoctoral scholars to present their research at a featured campus and community event.

Science and Engineering Building Auditorium | Estimated outreach: 25,000+ students, alumni, faculty, staff, and community members

Contact:

Elizabeth Kahane, Director of Development
elizabeth.kahane@unlv.edu | (702) 895-3429