RESEARCH AND CREATIVE HONORS

Honors Thesis/Project Proposal Approval Form

Student Name: _________________________________       Date: _________________

Working Title of Honors Thesis/Project:

_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________

The Honors Thesis/Project Proposal presented on the date above has been approved with the following suggestions/revisions:

_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________

Approvals:  IRB ___  CITI Soc/Behav ___  CITI Biomed ___  Biosafety ___  Risk Manag ___

Note: Research involving human subjects must go through IRB. The Faculty Advisor should serve as the Principal Investigator (PI) on the IRB protocol. Approval of a protocol typically takes 5-8 weeks. Therefore it is recommended that the protocol be submitted before the start of the next semester.

Agreed upon deadline/date for submission to IRB: __________

Faculty Advisor: ______ (initial)       Student: ______ (initial)

SIGNATURES:

Faculty Advisor: ____________________________________________ Date: _____________

Honors College Faculty Member: _______________________________ Date: _____________

Third Committee Member: _________________________________ Date: _____________

Grade for HON 498: ____ Satisfactory   ____ Unsatisfactory