Organization Overview

The League of Conservation Voters (501c4) is a non-profit, non-partisan organization which advocates for pro-environmental goals through community outreach. We focus on both federal and state legislative goals, including rooftop solar and saving the Environmental Protection Agency. We want to keep Nevadans informed on current environmental issues and mobilize them to take action.

The Position

The League of Conservation Voters is looking for compassionate interns with people skills who want to contribute to our pro-environmental efforts. The position encourages determination and creativity—interns can use their own ideas in their work. Interns should be ready and willing to learn about political organizing and advocacy work.

- 10 hours minimum per week (Flexible)
- No experience required
- Unpaid
- Casual dress code

Duties

- Organize and attend events
- Recruit volunteers
- Data input and processing
- Write handwritten letters and letters to the editor
- Canvassing and tabling at events
- Other tasks as assigned

Applying

Send a one-page resume and a short cover letter to mjallitslcv@gmail.com.

Cover letters should state what environmental issue(s) is/are most important to you and what you want to take away from this internship. In your cover letter, please include your availability.