

Department of Anthropology

Dr. C. Todd White Scholarship

Dr. Todd White had a passion for teaching and it was not limited to the classroom as he was also a widely published author and editor of numerous articles, journals, and books. He loved sharing his vast amount of knowledge and was genuinely concerned about his students' success. Todd was also awarded Writer of the Year by the Blade editors in 2005. Dr. White's passion, enthusiasm and excitement for learning and knowledge were infectious and palatable. His family is humbled by the honor of preserving Todd's memory in the form of a scholarship, which will allow his passion for education to continue in the field of anthropology. The intent of his scholarship is to recognize a rising senior in Anthropology with the goal of helping them complete their senior year.

Selected by the Anthropology Department Selection Committee

The Dr. C. Todd White Scholarship shall be awarded to a student(s) meeting the following criteria:

1. Student must major in Anthropology;
2. Student must be within 12-20 credits of graduation with a major in Anthropology;
3. Student must have a minimum GPA of 3.2 or above;
4. Student may be full or part-time;
5. Preference will be given to students who are studying cultural anthropology; and
6. Students must submit a letter of reference from a faculty member.

Recipients may not reapply for subsequent years.

*Unless otherwise noted, all students who fill out a FAFSA or alternate need form and meet the criteria for the scholarship will be considered. No other application is needed.

*Selected award winner's name is due to the College of Liberal Arts Dean's office by December 1st.