

Felisa Mandujano TorresPresident*

Felisa Mandujano Torres is a community based instructor for the Extension of the University of Nevada, Reno. She teaches an evidence-based nutrition education curriculum in English and Spanish. Felisa completed her bachelor's in healthcare administration from UNLV. She is currently pursuing an MBA with a healthcare and finance concentration and hopes to attain a hospital administrative fellowship after graduation. Felisa engages in extracurricular activities to challenge herself, enhance her skills, and network meaningfully. She is the Sergeant-At-Arms at UNLV Toastmasters, a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives, and honored to be the President of the MBA Student Association. Lastly, she is excited to be part of the Director's MBA Advisory Board Mentoring Academy.

Jonathan KimExecutive Vice President*

Born and raised in Las Vegas, Jonathan is a Dual MBA and MS Quantitative Finance (MSQF) candidate expected to graduate in August 2022. He received his B.A. in Mathematics with minors in Global Entrepreneurship and Biology at UNLV. Having a keen interest in financial technology, he joined the relatively newly established MSQF program at UNLV. He serves as the Executive Vice President of the UNLV MBA Association for the 2021-2022 academic year and also serves as a graduate assistant for the MSQF program. Before attending graduate school, he provided private tutoring services for education levels ranging from elementary to university across the Las Vegas Valley for just over 11 years. Some of his passions include teaching, fishing, camping, and hiking.

Sean MedinaVice President of Operations*

Sean graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Biology with a minor in Neuroscience in 2018. During his undergraduate years, he served as a Humanitarian Officer for his professional organization, Alpha Epsilon Delta, where he organized over 30 community service events partnering with multiple non-profit organizations in Las Vegas. He was also part of the Honors College and graduated with the distinction of Magna Cum Laude. He is currently in the UNLV MBA program with a concentration in Finance, and he plans to work as a financial or data analyst following graduation. Sean is also the VP of Operations for the UNLV MBAA where he will be part of organizing and planning engagement events for fellow students.

Alejandro Rodriguez LombeidaVice President of Marketing and Communications*

Alejandro is in his first year of the General MBA Program at the Lee Business School at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. He graduated from UNLV with a double major in Economics and Communication Studies in the spring of 2021. Now, he wants to become a more qualified candidate before entering the highly competitive job market. Additionally, he seeks to develop meaningful connections with his cohort and network with business owners and professionals in the thriving city of Las Vegas. Currently, Alejandro works as a Graduate Assistant for the MBA Programs at the Lee Business School. He is also the VP of Marketing and Communications for the MBA Student Association, and part of the Director's MBA Advisory Board Mentoring Academy.

Benjamin BishopVice President of Finance*

Born and raised in industrial Cleveland, Ohio. After graduation in 1971, went to Case Western Reserve University for liberal arts undergraduate combined with MBA. Moved to New Orleans in 1978 with a real estate development feasibility consulting firm. Opened my own property development consulting firm in Denver in 1981. Volunteered with the Army Reserve in 1983 as a private in the infantry, followed by a commission in 1985 and Special Forces training in 1988. Working in Thailand 1995-97 taught cultural differences between American points of view and Asian. Continuous overseas deployments took their toll. Worked as a project manager for a real estate development company in Ogden, Utah 2004-06. Returned to the U.S. Pacific Command in Honolulu in 2009 with strategic plans and policy directorate. Arrived in Las Vegas in 2019. With the onset of the pandemic, I enrolled in the MBA program and MSQF to refresh my business skills.

Daniel YangBoard Member at Large*

Daniel graduated May 2021 with a Bachelor's of Science in civil engineering and is currently pursuing his dual Master's degree in civil engineering and business administration at UNLV. He works full time as a transportation engineer at HDR's Las Vegas office. Engineering is his passion and business is his interest. Through the program, he seeks to further his engineering skills and begin his business journey with the goal of becoming the owner of a future startup. As a board member at large in the UNLV MBA Student Association, Daniel looks forward to helping provide fellow students avenues to connect with the business community and each other. He enjoys building Gundam model kits and visiting nature sites to capture landscape photographs in his free time.