

Shelley Gitomer
Vice President
Philanthropy & Community Engagement
MGM Resorts International

As Vice President of Philanthropy & Community Engagement for MGM Resorts International, Shelley Gitomer is charged with enhancing the Company's strategic goodwill and alliances with communities, achieving closer alignment with the business mission and promoting the Company's Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) platform. She is responsible for corporate philanthropy, volunteerism and the employee-driven MGM Resorts Foundation.

Ms. Gitomer brings to her role more than 25 years of experience in the management of philanthropic programs in such fields as higher education, social service agencies and health care; strategic and program planning and implementation; corporate giving; and execution of major capital fundraising campaigns. She most recently served for 10 years as Vice President for Development at Nevada Cancer Institute, where she played a primary role in raising more than $200 million to develop that institution and oversaw corporate and foundation relations, special events and data management. Prior to that, Ms. Gitomer served as the Assistant Dean for Development & Alumni Relations at the University of Maryland School of Law. During her time there, she successfully led the school's first major capital campaign for building expansion, exceeding the $18 million goal.

Ms. Gitomer's previous experience also includes work as the Director of Development for the Johns Hopkins Cancer Center where she managed a comprehensive fund-raising program to meet capital, endowment and programmatic needs in cancer research, patient care and medical education. Earlier, she was the Director of the Women's Division of the United Jewish Appeal/Associated Jewish Federation of Baltimore.

Ms. Gitomer received her Bachelor of Arts Degree with Honors from Baltimore Hebrew University.
