DIVISION/JURY COORDINATOR:

Please be sure the student has completed all of this information on this form and attaches a printout of their academic record from MyUNLV.

You complete the information in this box and then submit this form to the Undergraduate Coordinator.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC POLICIES RELATED TO SATISFACTORY PROGRESS

- All undergraduate music majors must achieve a minimum grade of C- (C minus) in all music courses (MUS, MUSA, and MUSE) required to complete the student's degree.
- To advance to upper division applied study (Level V), the student must successfully complete four semesters of Musicianship and have made satisfactory progress toward his or her degree (MUS 102 through MUS 303, or MUS 201 through 304).
- The School of Music defines satisfactory progress as concurrent registration in musicianship courses and functional piano each semester of full-time enrollment until these course sequences are successfully completed. Students need to complete at least MUS 303 and MUS 209 in order to be considered for advancement to Applied Study for Majors V.

- Students receiving a scholarship from the School of Music must maintain a grade of 'B' in every required ensemble and in Applied Music (private lessons). If a grade of B- (B minus) or lower is earned in either area, the scholarship will be permanently rescinded.
