

Purchasing Ergonomic Products

The decision to purchase ergonomic equipment should be made wisely. There are no current laws or governing bodies that monitor 'ergonomic' labels, therefore use discretion in purchasing.

Purchases are made at the department's discretion and must follow established purchasing guidelines. For further assistance when purchasing ergonomic products, please contact Risk Management and Safety at 895-5404 or 895-4226

Frequently used ergonomic products

Chairs	Lumbar supports
Document Holders	Monitor arms
Equipment carts	Monitor risers
Foot rests	Monitor screens
Hand/wrist rests	Sit/Stand Units
Head sets	Split Keyboards
Keyboard trays/arms	Track balls/alternate mousing
Laptop stands	Task Lighting

Vendors

The following list is provided as a courtesy to departments and does not constitute an endorsement of said vendors by UNLV Risk Management and Safety or NSHE.

Office Depot/Office Max: chairs, document holders, equipment carts, foot rests, hand/wrist rests, headsets, screens, lumbar supports, monitor risers, monitor arms, monitor screens, sit/stand units, split keyboards, track balls, task lighting

Ergogenesis: chairs, document holders, foot rests, keyboard trays/arms, monitor risers, monitor arms, sit/stand tables

Ergonomic Solutions (ESI): document holders, foot rests, keyboard trays/arms, monitor arms, task lighting

Ergotron: sit/stand units/tables, monitor arms

Henriksen/Butler: chairs

Machabee Office Environments: chairs

Varidesk: sit/stand unit