RidgeRest Solite Thermarest Foam Pad

General Description

A simple foam pad to use as a picnic seat, padding, and to have a layer between you and the ground. This pad won't absorb water, and it's light enough to take with you anywhere. Additionally, this pad has an aluminized surface to reflect body heat back to your sleeping bag.

Features

- Patterns of ridges and valley trap air, increasing insulation
- Aluminized surface reflects body heat back to sleeping bag
- Ideal for 4-season camping
