

Roots & Resilience: Healing for Undocumented Communities Series

The poster features a background image of hands holding seeds. On the left, the title 'Roots & Resilience: Healing for Undocumented Communities with Desiré' is written in a dark, handwritten-style font. To the right is a circular portrait of Desiré, a woman with dark curly hair and glasses, smiling. Below the title, a paragraph of text explains the event's purpose. At the bottom left, the date and time are listed in handwritten font. On the bottom right, there are logos for 'STUDENT DIVERSITY & SOCIAL JUSTICE' (a colorful arrow icon) and 'UNDOCUNETWORK' (a monarch butterfly icon).

Roots & Resilience: Healing for Undocumented Communities with Desiré

The intention of this convening is for the healing facilitator, Desiré, to hold a conversation in which folks who are affected by immigration can honor the many emotions coming through. They will also be sharing practices that can ground us in our power and reconnect us to the medicine within.

*Friday April 24, 2020
12pm PST
Instagram Live
@UNLVSDSJ*

STUDENT DIVERSITY & SOCIAL JUSTICE

UNDOCUNETWORK

Desiré, a healing facilitator, holds a conversation for folks who are affected by immigration. This presentation helps people ground themselves in their power and reconnect to the medicine within.

Click below for Facebook Live Video

<https://www.facebook.com/UndocuNetwork/videos/259037872156310/>

Click below for slides of Presentation

<http://bit.ly/undocuhealing1>

Roots & Resilience: Healing for Undocumented Communities Series

ROOTS AND RESILIENCE: HEALING FOR UNDOCUMENTED COMMUNITIES WITH NORMA

Friday May 1st, 2020
12pm
Instagram Live @UNLVSDSJ

In this workshop Norma will share how immigration-related stress impacts the mental health of undocumented and immigrant communities, as well as provide supportive resources and strategies for coping. Norma is a Ph.D. Candidate in Clinical Psychology at Fuller Theological Seminary where she explores immigration and mental health.

In this workshop, Norma Ramirez, shares how immigrated-related stress impacts the mental health of undocumented and immigrant communities in addition to providing supportive resources and strategies for coping. Norma is a Ph.D. candidate in clinical psychology at Fuller Theological Seminary where she explores immigration and mental health.

Click below for Facebook Live Video

<https://www.facebook.com/UndocuNetwork/videos/874733113045439/>

Click below for slides of Presentation

<http://bit.ly/undocuhealing2>

Roots & Resilience: Healing for Undocumented Communities Series

ROOTS AND RESILIENCE: HEALING FOR UNDOCUMENTED COMMUNITIES WITH DR. SILVA

Friday May 8th, 2020

12pm

Instagram Live @UNLVSDSJ

In this workshop Dr. Sonaly Silva will share how immigration-related stress impacts the mental health of undocumented and immigrant communities, as well as provide supportive resources and strategies for coping. Dr. Silva is a licensed psychologist at UNLV Student Counseling and Psychological Services

Dr. Silva, a licensed psychologist, presents on how immigration related stress impacts the mental health of undocumented and immigration communities. During this workshop she will provide supportive resources for coping with stress.

Click below for Facebook Live Video

<https://www.facebook.com/UndocuNetwork/videos/2774888629307176/>

Click below for the slides

<http://bit.ly/undocuhealing3>

