Instructions for Setting Up

To set up the table, unroll the tabletop and take the table legs and support poles out of the mesh pouch. Align the holes in the bars with the holes in the bottom (black side) of the camp table. Screw the table legs into the holes so that they are firmly connected to the tabletop. Once all the legs are attached, flip the table onto the legs and it is ready to use. To disassemble the camp table, turn the table so that the legs facing skyward. Unscrew the legs, then place the legs and the two bars into the mesh pouch attached to the camp table. Roll the tabletop up and secure it.

Reviews*

"It is easy to set up, easy to move around, just strong enough, and it is a breeze to keep clean."

"It's well built and will support a good amount of weight"

"It's compact, durable and super easy to set up. We found the mesh pocket useful to store sanitized dishes on rafting/camping trips."
