

HMD 450 and HMD 455 Frequently Asked Questions

- Will HMD 455 satisfy my internship requirement?
  - Yes. If you are a senior graduating in August or December 2021, HMD 455 will be accepted as an approved substitution for HMD 450.
- How do I know which class I should take?
  - See the flow chart attached. If you do not have an internship and you intend to graduate in August or December 2021, you may take HMD 455 to satisfy your requirement.
- Who can take HMD 455?
  - Only students who have a senior standing, a 2.0 GPA or higher, have taken TCA 201 with a C or better, and who are graduating in August or December 2021 are eligible to take HMD 455 at this time. Additional pre-requisite classes may be required for different HMD 455 sections.
- Is HMD 455 easier than HMD 450?
  - No, HMD 455 is not easier than HMD 450. The course is just as intensive with the rigor expected of a 400-level class.
- How do I enroll in HMD 455?
  - There is a request for credit form that must be submitted. You may find the form here.
- How do I enroll in HMD 450?
  - First, you must have secured an internship. You must then submit the internship forms and learning agreement. The internship documents can be requested by emailing boughnercareerservices@unlv.edu.
- How do I add HMD 450 or HMD 455 to my cart?
  - You may not add these courses until you have received permission to do so from our office. We will give you specific instructions via email.
- Why can't I see HMD 450 or HMD 455? Are they full?
  - You cannot see the courses because you must receive permission to enroll. If you are concerned about the course being full, please contact our office.