Student Conduct Case Flow Chart

Alleged Incident

Report is received to the Office of Student Conduct and investigated

If possible violations are present, the student is notified and asked to meet with a Conduct Coordinator

Student/Student Organization meets with Conduct Coordinator

Student/Organization seeks informal resolution

Student/Organization requests formal resolution

Student/Organization is found not responsible

Hearing panel determines responsibility and sanctions, if necessary

Student/organization notified of decision

Appeal (conducted upon written request of charged student/organization)

Appeal denied

Appeal accepted

Sanctions effective

Affirm

Impose < or > sanctions

New hearing
Student Conduct Case Flow Chart Description

After an alleged incident, the report is received by the Office of Student Conduct and investigated. If possible violations are present, the student is notified and asked to meet with a Conduct Coordinator. The Student/Student Organization meets with the Conduct Coordinator, which has 3 possible outcomes as outlined below.

1. The Student or Organization is found Not Responsible
2. The Student or Organization seeks Informal Resolution
   a. If the Student or Organization accepts sanctions, the process ends here. If not, the Student or Organization may request formal resolution.
3. The Student or Organization requests Formal Resolution
   a. A Hearing panel determines responsibility and sanctions, if necessary. Student/Organization is notified of the decision. Student or Organization may or may not appeal the decision.
      i. If no appeal requested, the process ends.
      ii. Possible appeal (conducted upon written request of charged Student/Organization):
         1. If the appeal is denied, the sanctions are enacted.
         2. If the appeal is accepted, next steps may include a new hearing, imposing greater or lesser sanctions, or affirmation of the previous decision.