Faculty and students conduct 50,000 to 60,000 patient visits each year.

Dental services delivered at roughly one-third to half the cost of most private practices.

Coordinates and conducts 10 community clinics each year that offer services to children, homeless persons, veterans, those re-entering the workforce, and those with other special needs.

The school's Seal Nevada South program has provided more than 6,000 sealants to 2,200 children, representing $300,000 in donated services since 2012.

First-year students have provided dental education to more than 128,000 children within Title 1 schools.

FACTS, OUTREACH, SUPPORT

Facts:

- Led by Dr. Karen P. West
- Founded in 2002.
- Only four-year, fully-accredited school of dental medicine in the state.
- Receives nearly 2,000 applications for 80 available student spots.
- One in six dental future students applies to UNLV School of Dental Medicine.

Academic Programs:

- Doctor of Dental Medicine
- Certificate in General Practice Residency
- Certificate in Pediatric Dentistry
- Certificate in Orthodontics and Dentofacial Orthopedics with Master of Science in Oral Biology
- Master of Business Administration and Doctor of Dental Medicine
- Master of Public Health and Doctor of Dental Medicine
- Doctor of Dental Surgery

Community Support:

- Faculty and students conduct 50,000 to 60,000 patient visits each year.
- Dental services delivered at roughly one-third to half the cost of most private practices.
- Coordinates and conducts 10 community clinics each year that offer services to children, homeless persons, veterans, those re-entering the workforce, and those with other special needs.
- The school's Seal Nevada South program has provided more than 6,000 sealants to 2,200 children, representing $300,000 in donated services since 2012.
- First-year students have provided dental education to more than 128,000 children within Title 1 schools.

Nevada Economy Contribution:

- FY 2016-17 budgeted revenue is $34.8 million.
- Only $8.7 million of the school's funding comes from the state general fund.
- Dental School generates $26.1 million of total revenue from tuition, clinical revenue, fees, gifts, and research grants.
- Employs approximately 250 faculty, professional, and classified staff members.