TITLE I: THE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

A. MISSION STATEMENT

We, the Ways and Means Committee for the Consolidated Students of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, are the official representatives of the Senate on behalf of the entire undergraduate student body. We exist to:

- To review and oversee financial activities within CSUN.
- To provide Student Organizations the opportunity to receive supplemental funding in a fiscally responsible manner.
- Increase student activities to enhance campus life at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

B. COMPOSITION

As outlined by CSUN Bylaw 103, the Ways and Means Committee is established for the purposes of preparing the annual CSUN budget, serving as financial counsel to CSUN, and receiving all requests for funding from Registered Student Organizations (RSOs)

“The Ways and Means Committee of the Senate shall be composed of (1) chair, (1) vice chair and up to (10) voting senators. The members, who shall be senators, shall be assigned by the chair and approved by the Senate.
The chair, which shall be a senator, shall be elected via open nominations of the Senate. The vice chair, which shall be a senator, shall be elected by the committee among its members at the first meeting of each session or in the case of vacancy by the position.”

C. CHAIR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The duties of the Ways and Means Chair as outlined by CSUN Bylaw 103 include, but are not limited to:

1. Preside over all official meetings
2. Maintain all agendas and minutes
3. Record the attendance of the members
4. Vote only in the event of a tie
5. Remove any member who accrues (3) or more unexcused absences, where (3) or more unexcused tardies results in (1) unexcused absence.
   i. The determination of excusals is made by the Chair

Additional Responsibilities include:
1. Assign members to the committee
2. Delegate Committee Members to specific roles within the Committee itself
3. Enforce disciplinary actions for committee members who arrive to meetings late or fail to attend meetings routinely
4. Assign Committee Members to be liaisons for organizations that have been approved through the committee
5. Making any clerical or grammatical adjustments to the Operating Policy that do not alter the content. These changes will not have to be passed by the Committee or the Senate.
6. Reporting to the Oversight Committee any members who have not completed requested tasks fully and/or in a timely manner.
7. Verifying through student involvement center
8. Providing committee members with any organization past funding history with CSUN.
9. Maintain and collect receipts from all funded organizations

D. VICE CHAIR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The duties of the Ways and Means Committee Vice Chair as outlined by CSUN Bylaw 103 include, but are not limited to:

1. Record minutes of official meetings (audio and electronic copies)
2. Assume the role of chair in their temporary absence
3. Act as interim chair in the case of the permanent absence of the chair, until the Senate has appointed a new one.
4. Assist the Chair in the presentation and discussion of budgets
5. Assist the Chair in preparation for each meeting
   a. Ensure all Student Organizations have adequate materials including budgets, cover letters, and item quotes
6. Assist the chair with providing committee members with any organization past funding history with CSUN.
7. Assist in collecting receipts from organizations as assigned by the Chair

E. COMMITTEE MEMBER DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Attend all scheduled meetings
2. Correspond with the committee chair to report unavoidable absences
3. Record minutes of official meetings in absence of vice chair
4. Introduce legislation for the committee to consider on behalf of the student body
5. Vote on proposed legislation
6. Complete assigned tasks in a timely manner
7. Work as a liaison between each organization and the Senate to:
   a. Assist in the final presentation of the budget
   b. Serve as a contact throughout the remainder of the fiscal year
   c. Contact organizations in a timely manner
   d. Know the organization’s past history in regards to past CSUN funding.
   e. Collect receipts from organizations as assigned by the Chair

TITLE II: COMMITTEE SCOPE OF PRACTICE

A. BYLAW SCOPE OF PRACTICE
As outlined by CSUN Bylaw 103, the Ways and Means Committee shall:
1) Submit a zero-deficit annual CSUN Budget to the Senate no later than June 15 of each year.
2) Approve or disapprove all funding requests from Recognized Student Organizations (RSOs), before being placed on the Senate Agenda.
3) Make the recommendations necessary for the proper control and management of CSUN funds.
4) Submit a weekly financial statement to the Senate, which may be delegated to the CSUN Business Manager or, in his or her absence, the CSUN Graduate Assistant.
5) Recommend approval or disapproval of all budget allocations of all CSUN organizations according to the merit of the proposed activities.
6) Shall submit to the Senate at the beginning of each session a set of guidelines for any Registered Student Organization regarding the use of CSUN funds.
7) Shall submit to the Senate at the end of each semester a report on approved and denied requests by Registered Student Organizations, including a financial analysis to include spending patterns and waiting times.
8) Shall submit to the Senate and Business Manager at the end of the Senate Session a set of recommendations to the next Ways and Means Committee on funding guidelines.
