Registration for the COE Technical Writing workshops Fall 2016

Introduction to Technical Writing Resources at UNLV
Primarily for new graduate students in the College of Engineering and other STEM-related disciplines, this workshop also is open to all other graduate students.
Experts from UNLV Libraries and The Writing Center will describe their services in order to help you write your theses, dissertations, papers, reports, and posters.

Presenters:
Julie Longo (COE), Sue Wainscott (Libraries), Dr. Gina Sully (The Writing Center), and Katherine Keller (Libraries)

Date: Friday, Sept. 23, 2016
Time: 1 to 2:30 p.m.
Location: SEB Classroom 1243

Literature Review: How to Search, How to Write
Your thesis, dissertation, papers, and reports all require literature reviews. How do you conduct a quality literature review? Sue Wainscott, STEM Librarian, will show you how in this workshop. How do you write up your literature review in a professional manner? Julie Longo, the Technical Writer at the College of Engineering, will show you what to do.

Presenters:
Sue Wainscott, Engineering Librarian
Julie Longo, COE Technical Communications

Date: Friday, Nov. 4, 2016
Time: 1 – 4 p.m.
Location: SEB Classroom 1243

References, Citations, and Referencing Tools
Key to good scholarship is the proper handling of citations and references. This workshop will go over the basics, and also will provide an overview of referencing tools, such as RefWorks and Mendeley. In addition, you will get some practice on how to paraphrase correctly.

Presenters:
Sue Wainscott, Engineering Librarian
Dr. Gina Sully, Director of The Writing Center
Julie Longo, COE Technical Communications

Date: Friday, Nov. 18, 2016
Time: 9 a.m. to 12 noon
Location: Amargosa Room, Lied Library
