

Friends of World Anthropology

Continue the UNLV Anthropology tradition of fieldwork, research and learning!

By donating to Friends of World Anthropology, you become part of the long tradition of supporting world-renowned scholars and speakers at UNLV. Donors regularly meet with professors for tours of laboratories on campus and attend special events and dinners with local and visiting scholars. Your contributions to Friends of World Anthropology also support merit-based stipends for research, travel, and presentations at meetings by the very active group of Anthropology graduate students at UNLV.

Yes! I want to support Friends of World Anthropology with a generous tax deductible gift.
