Internship Information

Apply to be part of Nevada's winning team

Adam Laxalt’s campaign for governor is seeking highly motivated students to work for the campaign this spring, summer, and fall. This internship provides an opportunity to be on a winning team and part of one of the most important elections in Nevada’s history.

The ideal Team Laxalt intern must be ambitious, creative, extremely well organized, possess outstanding written and verbal communication skills, pay meticulous attention to detail, be able to independently juggle competing priorities in a dynamic and demanding environment, adhere to strict deadlines, and have a strong interest in Republican electoral politics

EXPECTATIONS

- Team Laxalt interns will be the foundation of our grassroots team.
- They will lead the charge in transforming Nevada and informing voters about Adam and his plans for Nevada.
- Candidates for the Team Laxalt internship position are expected to work through challenges and take initiative in developing creative outreach strategies.
- This may include organizing precinct walks, phone banks, training volunteers, attending parades and setting up political events throughout the state.

Part-time & full-time positions are available

While with the campaign, Team Laxalt interns will gain valuable connections and skills to further their desired career. There are limited positions available.
