

OUR-UNLV Outstanding Undergraduate Researcher Award

The Office of Undergraduate Research (OUR-UNLV) is accepting nominations for the first annual Outstanding Undergraduate Researcher Award. This award acknowledges one outstanding undergraduate student for their accomplishments in research, scholarship, performance or visual art. Currently enrolled UNLV undergraduate students are eligible for consideration and should be nominated by a full time academic faculty member. The Outstanding Undergraduate Researcher Award includes a $500 monetary prize.

Application Deadline: Friday, March, 24, 2017 at 5:00 pm

Nominations: Currently enrolled UNLV undergraduate students must be nominated by a current NSHE academic faculty member to be considered for this award. Each nomination letter should be unique to the individual student; duplicate or closely worded nomination letters will be invalidated. Self-nominations will not be accepted.

Each nomination application must contain, and is limited to, the following:

- ☐ One formal letter of nomination from an NSHE academic faculty member that meets the following criteria:
 - ☐ It must be signed and dated.
 - ☐ The letter must clearly illustrate how the nominee has demonstrated continued success in research, scholarship, performance, or visual art and their contribution to research at UNLV and their field of study.
 - ☐ The letter is limited to 1 page in length
- ☐ The nominee's current academic Curriculum Vitae. Resumes will not be accepted.

Please submit all materials to the Office of Undergraduate Research using this link

The awardee will be recognized at the Spring Undergraduate Research Forum on Friday, April 21st. More information about the Forum can be found on the OUR-UNLV website.

*Please note: This a competitive OUR-UNLV award. Incomplete applications will not be considered.