

Show Me the Money:

Understanding the How, What, and Why of Sponsored Project Budgeting

BUDGET

Budgeting Blues got you down? We are here to help.

This workshop session will provide an over-arching breakdown of budget creation and utilization for your research projects.

Topics will include both pre-award budget development and post award budget management, with a focus on the reasoning behind UNLV's budgetary standards

Developed with new faculty and beginning investigators in mind, this session is also a valuable refresher for even the most seasoned Rebel researcher.

UNLV's Office of Sponsored Programs is pleased to provide this workshop to assist research faculty. The workshop is being presented on 2 consecutive days for more attendance flexibility:

Wednesday, October 12, 10-11AM, SU Meeting Room 205

Thursday, October 13, 1-2PM, SU Meeting Room 205

Seating is limited: All who are interested are encouraged to attend, but priority will be given to UNLV faculty. Please RSVP Kathleen Norton at 702-895-1357 or via email at kathleen.norton@unlv.edu.

For more information related to Sponsored Programs, call the Office of Sponsored Programs at 702-895-1357 or visit our website at <http://research.unlv.edu/osp>