APRIL 26 | NOON-1:30 P.M.
Frank and Estella Beam Hall (BEH) 241

Learn about current research happening in the UNLV Lee Business School at a fun, fast-paced event where LEE faculty will share about current research in five-minute presentations utilizing five slides or less.

This event is open to the entire UNLV campus community. Lunch will be served. RSVP required.

The lightning line-up includes:

Dr. Anjala Krishen: "5 years in 5 minutes: LEE research in a flash"

Dr. Payal Sharma: "How the powerless become powerful: A qualitative study of workplace mistreatment in hip hop videos"

Dr. Andrew Zhang: "Low risk puzzle: Beta or firm-specific risk?"

Dr. KC Tan: "Coffee supply chain in an emerging economy"

Dr. Ikseon Suh: "Blurred vision: The role of oversight and corporate governance stakeholders' decisions"

Dr. Makayla Palmer: "Marketplace Insurance and New Opportunities for Mothers"
