This lecture will talk about the herstory of the Radical Monarch movement & how we stay rooted in queer feminist activism. In addition, we will discuss which theories of change, and lived experiences inform our social justice praxis.

The Radical Monarchs mission is to create opportunities for young girls of color to form fierce sisterhood, celebrate their identities and contribute radically to their communities.

Thursday, 3/28/19
BEH 123
11:30 am- 1 pm*

*There will be festivities in Pida Plaza right after the lecture